

FRATERNITIES

ALPHA-EPSILON CHAPTER KAPPA ALPHA PSI

By E. M. Pressley, Jr.

On November 23rd, 1928, the brothers were pleased to have in their midst the following visitors: Brother A. A. Alexander, C. E., Grand Polemarch, and wife of Des Moines, Iowa; Brothers F. L. Forbes, Vice Grand Polemarch, C. Hawkins, Dunmore, W. D. Mann and Lattimore, a Scroller of Pi Chapter, Morehouse College; Brother A. M. Shearin, Provincial Polemarch, Durham, N. C., who made his stay very short.

Brother A. A. Alexander is an outstanding contractor and engineer of the West. He is doing excellent work in the fraternal field.

Brothers C. Hawkins, Dunmore, W. D. Mann and Lattimore are members of Morehouse varsity foot ball team that challenged Smith's varsity.

The distinguished speakers of the evening were Bro. A. A. Alexander, who made a very interesting and energetic talk about Fraternal Life; Brother F. L. Forbes, who made a short talk in behalf of Pi Chapter and Brothers T. S. Jackson and A. S. Powe who made short talks in behalf of Alpha Epsilon.

Before closing the Grand Polemarch, A. A. Alexander, and the brothers of Alpha Epsilon discussed the conditions pro and con that existed among fraternity men. His final remarks will long be remembered.

Initiation.

On November 24, the good brothers of Alpha Epsilon ushered five barbarians across the burning sands to the delphic shrine.

The initiation was carried out in a most brilliant and impressive manner.

Alpha Epsilon now takes pleasure in introducing the new brothers: C. C. De Vane, A. T. James, E. H. Jenkins, R. E. Jones and H. T. Thompson to the noble Clan. We do hope that these brothers will nistill new life into the Chapter.

A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all the Fraternity men.

OMEGA PSI PHI

By A. E. Manley

Time continues its unbroken flight. The holidays draw nigh; brothers will turn their steps homeward and forget for a while the monotony of the regular class room grind.

Keeping pace with the times Omega closes the year in triumph. Burning behind all the bridges of disappointment, having conquered all obstacles, the prospects for the incoming year are unusually bright. Standing as she does on a pedestal which has only been reached by dint of hard labor, and dogged consistency, Rho is well content. Turning her pages to a new margin Omega looks forward to an important union that will be far-reaching in so far as it will provide common ground where differences may be settled and constructive work begun.

This correlative enterprise is nothing less than an Inter-Fraternal Council. From all indications the time is mature for such action by the three fraternities. Matters of grave concern have over-balanced and we are leaning heavily on the shoulders of individuals in this Greek World of ours. Without such an organization the equilibrium is bound to remain unstable. Should we as Fraternity men continue to keep our eyes closed? Hardly, when a little meditation will reveal enormous benefits which can be derived from the realization of this budding flower.

With no representative body of the masses in our midst a choice Inter-Fraternal Council can begin and foster great enterprises that in the outcome will make a Greater Smith and a more amicable student body.

This is well worth thinking and dreaming over as we enjoy with gusto the Yuletide season. May this dream be realized to such fruitful proportions that all doubts and misunderstandings will be lost in that great reward of endeavor, production, so much so that the past and its complex problems will remain lost forever in that great sea—oblivion.

Basileus Steele represented Rho Chapter at the Annual Conclave of the Fraternity in Indianapolis on December 22.

As the mantle of time settles about us and we speed on to our respective destinations, Omega pulls the curtain by wishing all Greeks a Merry Christmas and a happy return.

ALPHA PHI ALPHA

By Henri Louis Marshall, '29

"Sometimes a troop of damsels glad
Goes by to tower'd Camelot,
With plumes and lights
For often thro' the silent nights
And music, went to Camelot."

A most enjoyable entertainment was given on Friday evening, November 23, after the Smith-Morehouse game, by Alpha Omicron Chapter. Good music, song and fair damsels enhanced the richness and beauty of the occasion.

After a season of hardships and peril, Bro. C. Randolph Taylor, as coach, led his team to victory on turkey day. Bros. J. O. Ellis, Jethro Henry, Hobson Biggs, La Grange Summersett, Willard Coleman, Caesar Walker and Gaither Lysterly were on the team this season.

We are being represented on the Glee Club by Bros. Jno. Wilson, Vance Chavis, Frances Curry, James Young, Baxter Lowe, Arthur Jones, Henri Marshall and Arthur Clement.

We are delighted from time to time to have Bros. Thomas Watkins and A. R. Lord of the city with us.

Recent visitors were Bros. Rev. J. Riley Dungee, N. L. Gregg, C. B. Stewart and Judge Graham.

Brother J. T. Wilson has been elected official delegate to the 21st Convention which will meet at Philadelphia, Pa. Bros. Randolph Taylor, G. F. Woodson and Vance H. Chavis are expecting to attend also.

THE LAMPADOS CLUB

By M. A. Hawkins

The Lampados Club is continuing to uphold its three fold spontaneous inclination, i. e., a desire to learn brotherly love and fraternization. These principles are carried out daily in a diligent way in order that we might advance our purpose and cause the bigger Greeks to be proud of us. Our inability to surpass is keenly realized until we are the proud sons of the great Omega. At present we may be classed as living in a gregarious state. Our impelling force goes far beyond the satisfaction of being a "Lamp." We are striving and traversing the straight path in hopes of meeting the approval of the ones who have confidence in us.

On Friday, November 19, the Lampados Club of Rho Chapter, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity entertained the brothers in Omega at the Swan Rest. Every one seemed to have enjoyed the evening. To add to the fair was the select group of lady friends of Omega.

Jack Martin, a three letter man, along with Faulks, Williams and Baker, represented the "Lamps" very favorably on the gridiron this season. As we gaze into the crystal globe, we readily see that Martin was the most valuable man on the team. We are proud of this quartette of athletes. If they continue their good work, they, no doubt, will be listed among the men of which the memory lingers on. Martin was given honorable mention on Bill Gibson's All-American team. Brother Baker, whose leg was broken during the Morehouse game is improving nicely. We are expecting much from Skinner and Archie next season.

Greggs, Williamson and Griffin represented the Freshmen class in the debate last week against the Sophomores. They showed marked signs of becoming valuable men to the University. These men are great partakers in extra curricula activities.

The Lampados Club has organized a basket ball team, and after the holidays will be ready to take on all comers. Clubs interested in the loop game that would like to play us may write the reporter.

SCROLLER'S CLUB

By Edward E. Gibson

"Let us then, be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait."

Mr. Edward W. Jones, our President, has added to his many other achievements that of being outstanding debator in the Freshman-Sophomore Debate. This distinction will, doubtlessly be his greatest stepping stone to the Varsity Debating Team.

We may here turn to another phase of activity. We find many of our pledge brothers taking an active part in athletics. While the basket ball season is very young we are proud to see Messrs. De Vane, Horne, H. E. Jones, Thomas A. Goodwin and James Houston making such a splendid showing in the early stages of practice.

The Scroller Officers have been elected for the year. With their installation we feel that the club will have a very successful year. The list of officers is as follows:

Mr. Edward W. Jones, President.
Mr. Grady G. Rice, Vice-President.
Mr. Paul B. Adams, Secretary.
Mr. Arthur Anderson, Assistant Secretary.
Frank D. Alston, Treasurer.
Mr. Charles Jones, Manager of Athletics.

Mr. Ralph Ellis, Sergeant-at-Arms.
Mr. Edward E. Gibson, Reporter.

Now that the Scrollers have returned from their vacations they are ready to resume their class activities. From all reports the holidays were filled with some activity and the Scrollers' Club was not forgotten. The friends of these young men were, no doubt, benefitted by Scrollers' influence.

wonder why Fletcher's erstwhile friend at Clafin showed so much interest in him. Can it be that Fletcher is "the man that was?"

Henry's Thanksgiving trip to Asheville has produced a remarkable change in the boy. They tell me she is a fair and charming one with many of the attributes of Venus herself. Ellis, I think, is responsible for Henry's latest dilemma, having himself a serious case of heart "affection."

Jefferson was caught completely unawares and one had to really know him well to appreciate the embarrassing situation of an unexpected visit of an out-of-town friend when he was all dated up.

Tony Brown and Mug Bynum are still holding their own at the "Y."
