It might have been cold this week, but at least it wasn't raining every day. If you are like me, you enjoy the cold weather, except when we have to get out of a nice warm bed to step on that nice cold floor. I think that is the main reason it is so hard for all of us to get up in the morning for school and for work. Agreed?

Speaking of cold weather, that didn't seem to keep anyone away from the game Friday night. The New Bern Bears played the Elizabeth City Yellow Jackets, and beat them both games. Tuesday night we played Kinston's Red Devils. This game drew quite a crowd, because Kinston is known to live up to its name. It was a tough night for the Bears.

After the game Friday night, the Blue Notes drew the crowd at the Shrine Club. They informed us they were returning on the 22nd of February. Oh yes, don't forget the Embers are playing tonight.

The Follies of 1963 are sponsoring a mermaid contest. A girl is chosen by every civic club to run. This girl is responsible for collecting votes. A penny counts as one vote, and the one who collects the most votes wins.

All the money collected will go towards the new Woman's Club. The girls chosen so far to run are Peggy Pate, Marjorie Carawon, Brenda Greene, and (not to be boasting) me. I hope you all will vote for the girl of your choice very soon.

My English teacher always puts a useful saying on the board every Monday morning. Copy them down and judge yourself on them sometimes. Maybe this one will help you: "If someone were to pay you 10 cents for every kind word you ever spoke about people, and collect five cents for every unkind word, would you be rich or poor?"

Think about this, as I did, and see if you would be rich or poor.

THEIR CHOICE—New Bern High school seniors have selected Jake Griffin, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Griffin, Jr., as the most intellectual boy in their class. He is not only brilliant but one of the nicest youngsters in the entire student body.—Photo by John R. Baxter.

but they's experts on the quality of materials. The worst bill of goods they ever fall for is the husband they try in vain to make over, after the notes of "Oh, Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly" have given way to the nagging shine of "Why don't you do better?"

Doris Day stars in her first musical in five years in "Billy Rose's Jumbo." Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's spectacular Panavision and color screen version of the Broadway stage success, also headlining Stephen Boyd, Jimmy Durante and Martha Raye. As the daughter of a circus owner, Miss Day sings several of Rodgers and Hart's greatest song hits, enacts a ballerina-on-horseback and appears as a clown and trapeze artist with some of the world's most famous circus acts. The lavish Joe Pasternak Production was directed by Charles Walters.

We don't expect this confidential information, which the average feminine New Bernian knows anyhow, to change any of the styles in ladies ready to wear. Women, we strongly suspect, don't dress to draw masculine admiration, but rather to make other women envious of their good grooming.

A man knows when a woman looks attractive, but he is too dumb to figure out why. Ask him what so and so was wearing at a party, and he couldn't tell you if his life depended on it. His wife can tell you, probably knows where the outfit was purchased and how much it cost on the marked-down rack.

Which helps to explain why women are smarter shoppers than the male of the species. They may be foolish over fads,
