Buds AND Blossoms

By
MAMIE MILLER

"Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me; Then I answered them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us."-- Neh. 2:18, 20.

You will find many irises on sale now. They are the dwarf bearded and Siberian. The dwarf ones are good for edging. Space them at least two feet apart. Grow arabis, candytuft, creeping phlox, sedums, dwarf ageratum, petunias and alyxum between them.

To the rear of the line you may have the other irises growing with sweet William, coral bells, sea lavender, cushion mums, tulips, salvia, snaps, peonies and Canterbury bells.

Grow tiger and Henry's lilies with artemisia, poppies and gypsophila. Include in your garden regale, speciosum, Madonna and auratum lilies. These will greatly reward all labor and cost put in them. They are very fragrant.

Take plenty of time in hot weather to plan your garden for another season.

This week, for our Buds and Blossoms poem, our choice is "Waiting" by John Burroughs.

Serene I fold my arms and wait,
Nor care for wind, or tide,
or sea;
I rave no more 'gainst time or fate,
For lo! my own shall come to me.

I stay my haste, I make delays,
For what avails this eager pace?

I stand amid the eternal ways,
And what is mine shall know my face.

Asleep, awake, by night or day,
The friends I seek are seeking me;
No wind can drive my bark astray,
Nor change the tide of destiny.

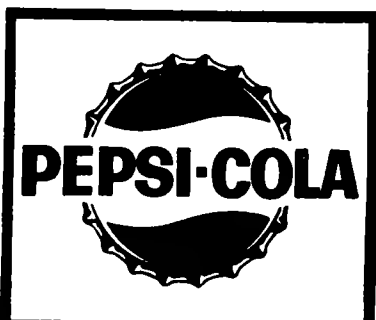

What matter if I stand alone?
I wait with joy the coming years;
My heart shall reap where it has sown,
And garner up its fruit of tears.

The waters know their own,
