Dolphins Craven Champs

The Dolphins, Vanceboro's Craven County Youth Football team emerged as the Pee Wee Division Champions with a perfect 5-0 record in division play under coaches Leonard Taylor, Jr. and Tony Caprara. The 22-boy team, sponsored by Kite's Supermarket and the parents of the players, fought hard but dropped four non-division games to a much older and larger sized Havelock team for an overall record of 5-4. At their November 19th Awards Banquet, all the members of the Dolphin team received individual trophies for their accomplishment. Mr. Gus Kite was awarded a special trophy in appreciation for his sponsorship of the team. The Craven County Recreation Department supplied officials for each game.

The Craven County Youth Football League is affiliated with the nationwide Pop Warner Football League. Building the character of all the participants, not just one or two, is one of the goals of the Pop Warner League. The complete team roster includes the following future athletic stars: Andy Caprara, Johnny Clark, Marvin Dawson, Bobby Elks, Randy Elks, Troy Freeman, Jimmy Haddock, Terrial Hardy, Curtis Jenkins, Maurice Jenkins, Percy Johnson, Douglas Lee, Stacy Lee, Chris Martin, Clay McOmber, Jerry Morris, Keith Morris, Leon Morris, Frenchie Nobles, Jonathan Taylor, Lennie Taylor, and Curtis White.
