Senior Citizens Organize

On September 23, 1977, the Senior Citizens of Vanceboro, known as the Vanceboro 55's, held their organizational meeting. The meeting was organized and directed by Wanda Thompson, Senior Citizens Coordinator for the Craven County Recreation Department. Elected officers were Virginia McLawhorn-President, Helen Butler-Vice-President, Katie Mae Hill-Secretary, and Cora Lewis-Treasurer. Daisy Powell was elected Service Director and Eugelia Taylor and Fanny Patterson, Social and Entertainment Chairmen.

The club meets on the first and third Wednesday of the month at 3:30 p.m. in the Home Economics Department at Farm Life Elementary School. The club is most appreciative to Mr. Richard Bowers, principal of Farm Life School, for allowing them the use of this facility.

The twenty-two members have enjoyed various activities such as ceramics, liquid embroidery, making Christmas decorations, taking trips to the State Fair, and a Christmas shopping trip to Goldsboro. Those who are not a member are missing an opportunity to enjoy hours of fun, fellowship, and entertainment.
