

Bird's Eye View of New Bern

by Rebecca S. Fazio

The New Bern Historical Society is sponsoring their annual Yard Sale to be held Saturday, April 28 from 10:00 until all items are sold. The sale will be held at the Attmore Oliver House on Pollock Street, next to the "Lady Tryon Beauty Parlor." Anyone wishing to donate items may bring them to the Attmore home between 11:00 and 3:00, during the week of April 23. Proceeds from the sale will be used to restore the historical homes in New Bern.

The Democratic Precinct Meeting of the 4th ward was held at the Recreation Center on Pine Tree Lane on Thursday, April 19. The meeting was called to order by Chris Barker, chairman. The purpose of the meeting was to elect officers. Rep. Barker was re-elected as chairman. Other officers elected were: 1st Vice Chairman, Jerry Adams; 2nd Vice Chairman, Elizabeth Daily; Secretary-Treasurer, Sylvia Adams; and 12 delegates to attend the county convention at Craven County Court House on May 19. If you are a newcomer to the area and have not registered to vote, you may do so at the Board of Educations or at one of the 23 different precincts. The 1980 elections will be here before you know it.

Officers for the coming year were elected at the meeting of the Business and Processional Women on April 24. The women met at the Palace Motel. Dorothy Pate, chairman of the legislative committee, presided. The theme
