Eastern Star meets

The Annual District No. 2 Order of the Eastern Star Meeting was held in Pollocksville on June 26.

The Grand Worthy Matron, Sister Maggie Strong, the Worthy Patron Brother Alvin Hobbs, and the Grand District Deputy Sister Ada Miller were supervising the School of Instruction with other officers assisting. The meeting was well attended. Pride of Ft. Barnwell Chapter No. 515 had four members attending. They were Worthy Matron Ms. Alice Mitchell, Worthy Patron Mrs. John Z. Smith, Associate Matron Ms. Catherine Mitchell, and

The Elizabeth City State University Alumni Association Cra-Jo-Pam Chapter recently gave away prizes for ticket donations for the benefit of the organization. The winner of a Black and White television set was John Z. Smith of Ft. Barnwell. Mrs. Eva Hawkins of Kinston won a radio and Danny Murriell of Pollocksville won a ham. The final meeting was held at Mrs. Gladys Burney's home in Pollocksville until the fall.

Many citizens of Ft. Barnwell were deeply saddened by the deaths of two leaders in the community, Mrs. Nettie Chapman and Bishop Kleber Bryant. Bishop Bryant was pastor of the St. Edwards FWB Church for over six years during which many improvements were made.

Mrs. Darkis Moore and Mrs. Holland Wade have their younger sister Mrs. Eula McRae of Troy, N.C. as guest for one week.

Mrs. Eva M. Hawkins of Kinston spent the weekend with her daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Dal Mitchell.

Thought for the day: "Sow good seeds and you will reap a good harvest."
