

Reynolds brothers united after 25 years

by Alma Drake
Special to the Highlights

ERNUL--They had not seen each other for twenty-five years until last Thursday, May 1. Grady Reynolds, 90 of the Ernul community and his younger brother, Frank, 79, of Tampa, Florida spent the better part of their first day together reliving old times the two had shared and catching up on what has been happening during the past quarter century.

Natives of Georgia, where they attended school, the two have led very exciting lives. Grady worked as superintendent of Anchor Mill in Huntersville, N. C. until he retired. He married the former Juanita Wheatley and settled in the Ernul community. His daughter, Pauline, and her husband Charles Osborne accompanied Frank on this visit.

Frank worked as a machinist. He explained that he was working at Pearl Harbor when it was attacked in 1941. Frank intends to make his home in New Mexico soon.
