

HIGHLIGHTS

Serving Askin, Bridgeton, Caton, Cove City, Dover, Epworth, Ernul, Ft. Barnwell, Jasper, New, Bern, Piney Neck, Tuscarora, Vanceboro, Wilmar & Fairfield Harbour.

Volume 9

No. 51

December 18, 1986

Vanceboro, North Carolina

Phone 244-0780

20 cents

12 Pages

Vanceboro Aldermen Select New Chief of Police

In a recent meeting the Vanceboro Aldermen selected Herman Lewis of near Vanceboro to replace Billy Jewell as Chief of Police. Jewell resigned the position to take a job as a deputy with the Craven County Sheriff's Department.

Lewis received his on-the-job training from the New Bern Police Department where he worked as a policeman for several years. Other requirements were met through attending police school and receiving certification from the state of North Carolina.

If you are in need of police help, you can reach Chief Lewis by calling 636-6620 or 911 if it is an emergency. The dispatcher will notify that you need police help.

Richard L. Cannon III

Cannon Selected to Outstanding Young Men of America

The Board of Advisors for the Outstanding Young Men of America awards program announced today that Richard L. Cannon III, 3004 Phillips Road, Greenville, N.C. has been selected for inclusion in 1986 edition of OUTSTANDING YOUNG MEN OF AMERICA. Mr. Cannon is the son of Mr. & Mrs. R.L. Cannon Jr. of Vanceboro.

Now in its 24th year, the OYMA program is designed to honor and encourage exceptional young men between the ages of 21 and 36 who have distinguished themselves in many fields of endeavor, such as service to community, professional leadership, academic achievement, business advancement, cultural accomplishments, and civic and political participation. Achievements in these areas are the result of dedication, responsibility, and drive for excellence—qualities which deserve to be recognized and remembered.

Mr. Cannon, along with fellow Outstanding Young Men throughout North America, were selected after 150,000 nominations were received from political leaders, University and College officials, clergymen, business leaders, as well as from various civic groups and community organizations. Each young man will be represented by his biographical entry in this prestigious annual awards continued on page 3

DECA Donates To Caswell

Last week at its regular club meeting, the West Craven High School DECA Chapter presented a check for the sum of $293.49 to Mr. Danny Rice for use in the Caswell School of Kinston Christmas Fund.

The Marketing Students of the WCHS DECA Chapter raised the money by soliciting from neighbors, and friends or donating one or two hours of their pay to the worthy project.

Students at the Caswell School do not have the funds for Christmas presents and are dependent upon outside groups to donate money for special occasions. This is a yearly project of the WCHS DECA Chapter.

Joann Rachid, chairperson of Civic Consciousness Committee, was the director of the project.

Joann Rachid, Marketing Student at West Craven High School presents a check to Mr. Danny Rice for the Caswell Fund.

Local High School Band Members Named to All-American Hall of Fame

The local West Craven High School was recently honored when 8 of its students were named to All-American honors according to information received from Jeff Maynard Director of the West Craven High School Band. They are as follows: Shelton Kelly, John Bircher, Erica Allinen, Linwood Fulcher, Barry Squires, Rex Lilly, John Stilly, and Amanda Faulkner.

The All-American Hall of Fame Band Award is made annually by the All-American Hall of Fame Foundation a national, non-profit organization created to identify and recognize outstanding high school musicians throughout the United States.

This All-American recognition is a much coveted honor and the West Craven High School and band director Jeff Maynard are to be complimented for the recognition being brought to this community.

L-R Shelton Kelly, John Bircher, Kelle Wiggins, John Stilly

WCHS Students Named Who's Who In Music

The 1987 edition of WHO'S WHO IN MUSIC will carry the names of four students from West Craven High School, who have been selected as being among the country's most outstanding high school musicians.

Campus nominating committees and editors of the annual directory have included the names of these students based on their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and potential for continued success.

students selected from more than 1,300 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and several foreign nations.

Outstanding students have been honored in the Who's Who annual directories since the first publication in 1934.

Students named this year from West Craven High School are:

West Craven High School Band; Mr. Shelton Carl Kelly, Mr. John Charles Bircher Miss Kelle Lorraine Wiggins, and Mr. John Clyde Stilly.

Christmas Greetings

FR—LR Linne Fulcher, Rex Lilly, John Bircher, Shelton Kelly, Second Row LR—Amanda Faulkner, John Stilly, Erica Allinen, Barry Squires