The Belles

OF SAINT MARY'S

Vol. VI, No. 13

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA

April 23, 1943

Physical Education Day Climaxes Year's Program

Military Drill, Danish Exercises, Modern Dance, and Choral Speech Are Main Features

Physical educational training at Saint Mary's comes to a climax this Year with Physical Education Day, Wednesday, April 28. The program will start at 4 o'clock with drilling and Danish gymnastics, and will continue into the evening with a dance program. Both afternoon and evening performances are under the direction of Miss Rebecca Harvey and Mrs. Jane Guess, and include the whole student body.

AFTERNOON ACTIVITIES

In the afternoon three platoons of seniors, which have been drilling since fall, will compete against each other, and the six platoons, which have been drilling since Christmas, will compete among themselves. The platoons will be under the command of State College R. O. T. C. Cadets. They will be judged on appearance and response in the execution of commands by Messrs. Russell Broughton, William Guess, and Captain State College. tain Stott, State College.

Military drill has been conducted by volunteer cadet officers from the State College R. O. T. C. unit. The cadets who will be commanding platoons next Wednesday will be. Capt. Dalrumple, Maj. King, Maj. Stockard, Capt. Farthing, Lt. Grant, Col. Taylor, Capt. Frady, Lt. Betts, and Lt. Clos. Lt. Clec.

Also, on the same afternoon Platoon Sergeant Marjorie Shackelford will give a demonstration of military drill with her platon.

Another feature of the afternoon will be a demomnstration of Danish symnastics and pyramid building by the two senior physical education

At 7:30 that night in the gym there will be a short demonstration and dance program consisting of modern dance exercises by selected Orchesis members. The program strives to combine dance, speech, and music. Mrs. Marjorie Huskin, who (See P. 3)

MARIA LEGG CHIEF MARSHAL 1943-1944

Election of Marshals for 1943-44 Vas completed yesterday, nine girls having been nominated.

Maria Legg, of Henderson, receiving the greatest number of votes, was chosen Chief Marshal. The other Marshals are Katherine Legg, sister Marshals are Katherine Legg, sister of Maria; Margaret deRosset, Fayetteville; Mary West Paul, Nor-folk, Virginia; and Harriet Whit-aker aker, Kinston.

The Belles regrets that this news came through too late for pictures and a full story in this issue.

Charlotte Crawford, Editor, Belles; Patty Weaver, Editor, Bulletin; Adelaide Butler, Editor, Stage Coach

Crawford, Weaver, and Butler Are '43-'44 Editors NEW EDITORS ARE ELECTED UNANIMOUSLY IN ASSEMBLY; CRAWFORD TAKES OVER NEXT

ISSUE OF BELLES. BUTLER ALREADY WORKING ON NEXT YEAR'S ANNUAL. WEAVER BEGINS ON BULLETIN IN FALL

Saint Mary's student body unanimously elected Charlotte Crawford, of Raleigh, editor of The Belles; Patty Weaver, of Asheville, editor of The Bulletin; and Adelaide Butler of Charlotte editor of The Stage ler, of Charlotte, editor of The Stage coach for next year. These three girls have had experience in publication work both in high school and at Saint Mary's. They have all proven their talents for journalism and their abilities as leaders.

Charlotte Crawford, the new editor of The Belles, graduated from high school in New London, Connecticut, after attending thirteen other schools. She explained this by saying, "I am a Navy-Junior." She added that, although her home is in Polysich for the duration she will Raleigh for the duration, she will board at school next year. In several of the schools she has attended, Charlotte has been a member of school legislative bodies, publication staffs, and annual staffs. At Saint Mary's this year she belongs to the Dramatic Club and Publications Staff. As for next year, Charlotte says, "I'm really thrilled—and only hope that next year we can bring about even closer co-operation between the staff and the student body. Maybe we will be able to have a few cartoons."

Patty Weaver of Asheville was the assistant editor of the school paper at Saint Genevieve of the Pines, Asheville, before coming to Saint Mary's this year. Here she is a member of the Publications Staff as well as the Granddaughters' Club, as well as the Granddaughters' Club, Doctors' Daughters' Club, Dramatic Club, Circle, and Sigma Lambda Literary Society. She won second place in the literary societies' annual short story contest. Enthusiastically Potty told her interviewer. "I think Patty told her interviewer, "I think it's a grand honor and a wonderful opportunity! I'm expecting the students to contribute loads of articles."

Adelaide Butler, the new Stage Coach editor, graduated from high school in Lakeland, Florida, before moving to Charlotte. In high school she belonged to the National Honor Society and the Blue Key, honorary leadership societies, and served as secretary of the Classical Club, pres-ident of the Art Guild, member of the business and circulation staffs of the annual, and pictorial editor of the annual. At Saint Mary's she belongs to the Dramatic Club, Sigma Lambda Literary Society, Publications Staff, and art staff of the annual

During her interview, Adelaide said, "I've watched Lillian at work this year and I hope I'll be able to handle the job half as well as she has." When asked about her plans for next year, she replied, "For one thing—we're going to start taking pictures right now—so look your best! The rest is a secret."