

CAMPUS NOTES

As For Music

Eleanor are just a little more en-died: diamonds on the third finger, left hands. . . Beverly Morrison's New Year's Eve proved to be quite exciting when her dreams of a certain captain came true. . . Lloyd Eggleston's favorite song is still an oldie, My Buddie, for a very particular reason.

The Marines "landed" in Warrenton after the Rolling W left to pick up a wrecked plane and liven up the vacation of Mary C., Lucy, Jane, Spot, and Margaret.

Now for the additions to "rogue's" galleries, trinket boxes, etc.:

Frankie, Maria, and Dabney have added field jackets to their collections. Barnie is one up on everybody that has tried to get a Pea-coat; she got one from THE sailor his Christmas. . . Betty Lou just got a pair of glider troop wings plus miniature parachute. . . Betty Griffin received a picture and wings; the first from an ensign and the second from a pre-flighter. . . Remember, most of these are after-Christmas presents. . . Peggy just got an addition to her picture collection. . . Kate also has a picture of an ensign; he was stationed at State but is now in the Pacific. . .
Maria has an Air Corps major's picture. . . Nancy Wood now owns a picture of her ensign in action on LCVP. . . But Kitty Taylor tops them all with a kodachrome portrait of THAT sailor; he should be in the novies. . . Eleanor Thomas also wears wings; they're from a Lt. . .
Sandy now wears a Woodberry bracelet.

All this and there's more to come.
Sidney and her pilot have made up again, and she will go home soon to see him. . . When Ruth Gee visited Betty during the holidays, she evidently met the one and only Navy officer. That's all she's been talking about since she got back. . . It seems that Mary Arden has developed a special like for "Good Polish Food." Rodwell likes something else. . . Phyllis had a wonderful time with her K.A. all vacation and Wood's pilot was in Edenton for a whole week. . . One of Jeannette Parker's "Friend's" friend dropped in on her Christmas to tell her all the news. . . Betsy Carter now associates Atlanta with a certain man. . . Martha Stoney's pararooper got home for a few days. . .
Sallie Robertson and Mag Rodwell both saw their sailors during the two weeks and both got pearls from them. . . Roberta went to Richmond to meet the "best man." . . And speaking of ensigns, Sister and Mary had two of them down to Rocky Mount for Christmas. . . Mary Dickey had quite a time on ice skates. . . This list is getting terrible, but Ann Edmunds and her Air Corps hit it off fine; Sue Moore bluet a fascinating doctor; Carolyn Holland's "pin-up boy" (winner of the Saint Mary's pin-up contest—p.d.) came back from the Pacific; Mary Tom's Navy got in; Peete's main interest is off to O.C.S. . .
Betsy Durham now likes the R.A.F.; but she and Virginia won't forget the ensigns at State. . . Sara Coe's been concentrating on A.T.O.'s; Ruth Hayes on med. students; and Barrie Maie on cadets.

Miss Malta Wannkovich of Warsaw, Poland, spoke to Assembly, January 11, about the work of the students in the Polish Underground. She represented the Polish Legation and the World Student Service Fund. Miss Wannkovich also spoke to several of the morning classes.

C. A. P. Moore gave an interesting current events program January 12 in Assembly.

Fred Fletcher of Station WRAL spoke in Assembly about the War Bond and Stamp Drive last Tuesday.

Patsy Rodgers ('44) visited Mary C. Bowers here last weekend. Patsy is now taking a business course at Pan-American in Richmond.

Saint Mary's War Bond Campaign began last Tuesday.

Kathryn Lane, Roberta Bryant, Jean Gatlin. The varsity team will be chosen from the first teams.

Frances Stribling (ex '45 H. S.) was married Saturday, January 13, to Moffitt Fuller in South Carolina.

Suzanne Elias, Mary Valentine, Jean Smith, and Frances Stribling Fuller will not attend the second semester.

Miss Betsy Blount spent the week-end of January 6 in Chapel Hill.

In order to conserve fuel, the auditorium will be heated only on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays for the convenience of all who use the building. Starting next week, Assembly will be held Wednesday and Friday. A misunderstanding of this plan resulted in no current events program yesterday.

The Ping Pong tournament is now being played. Betsy Durham is manager.

Thirty-six girls are taking military drill. There are six squads under the direction of Betsy Durham, Margaret Rodwell, Marietta Duke, Sylvia Rogers, Anna Margaret Moomaw, and Evelyn Tudor.

Arrangements are now being made for a life-saving course to be given next semester.

The new members of Orchesis are: Lib Price Hines, Kathryn Fulton, Sallie Lee, Mary Louise Moulton, Beverly Morrison, Langhorne Carrington, Sue Thomas, Mary Glen Slater, Charlotte Andrews, Barbara Wicks, Hettie Murphy, Catherine Foard, Luzette Callum, and Mildred Chappell.

James W. Coan of the Raleigh F.B.I. was the assembly speaker January 9.

Miss Genevieve Senecal spent the Christmas holidays in Montreal. She spent part of her vacation skiing in the Canadian village, St. Addele, in the Laurentian Mountains.

Tryouts are now being held for those who are interested in becoming members of Orchesis.

Jane Sloan ('44 H. S.) visited Saint Mary's January 15. Mary Charles Godwin ('42) also visited the campus.

The Rev. and Mrs. I. Harding Hughes spent Christmas in New York with their son, Ensign I.
Harding Hughes, Jr.

Mrs. Jack Hollis, former head of the Saint Mary's Business Department, visited Mrs. Robert Foss here January 16.

Pauline McNeny ('43) visited the campus January 3. She married Robert L. Johnson in Henderson, January 13.

Mrs. Theodore Patrick and her daughter left for New York January 12 to be with her son, Hall, who has joined the ambulance corps.

Poncie Dawson served at the Governor's reception, January 4.

Jackie Stoughton is a page at the present North Carolina State Legislature session.

Ruth Gee Gay's father, Archibald Gay, is President Pro Tem of the Senate.

Mary Holt Drewry ('42) visited Saint Mary's January 11, and Margaret Winslow ('44) was here January 6.

Members of the Canterbury Club have made from salvaged felt and delivered to the British War Relief Society twelve pairs of children's shoes.

Since Christmas there have been a lot of new releases both of songs and recordings. And in our opinion they're all rather good, but most of them center on the usual theme of love and loneliness.

One of the favorites is I Dream of You, the successor to I'll Walk Alone. It is one of the most often played tunes on the air. Some of best recordings are the ones by Frank Sinatra (Saturday Night on the reverse), Jimmy Dorsey (Magic Is the Moonlight on the reverse), Perry Como (I'm Confessin' on the reverse), and Tommy Dorsey (Opus No. 1 on the reverse).

There are now three top-notch novelty tunes. First is Don't Fence Me In. Three of the recordings are by Bing Crosby and the Andrews Sisters (The Three Caballeros on the other side), The Three Sums (The Love I Long For on the other side), and Sammy Kaye (Always on the other side). Other is the Raleigh favorite Rum and Coca-Cola and One Meat Ball by the Andrews Sisters. The last novelty is Ac-centtchu-ate the Positive by Artie Shaw with Jumpin' on the Merry-Go-Round on the reverse.

Tops among the current ballad recordings are: Harry James' Columbia record of The Love I Long For and I'm Beginning to See the Light, Perry Como's Decca disk of I'm Confessing with I Dream of You, Dinah Shore's Victor recording of Like Someone In Love and Sleigh Ride In July, Tommy Dorsey's More and More and You're Driving Me Crazy, Jo Stafford's Capitol record of Let's Take the Long Way Home and I Promise You, Frankie Carle's Columbia recording of A Little on the Lonely Side and I Had a Little Talk With the Lord, and Charlie Spivak's Victor disk of Right as Rain and A Wonderful Winter.

We're still looking for recordings of Cole Porter's Just Another Boy and Girl, Lo and Behold, and Suddenly My Heart Sings. They are all good.

There are also many new album collections. One of the best is of the hit tunes from Moss Hart's Broadway production and motion picture of "Winged Victory." It is one of the Decca personality series featuring the Winged Victory Chorus and Orchestra of the Army Air Forces. The selections include: Winged Victory, My Dream Book of Memories, Whiffenpoof Song, and The Army Air Corps Song. This is inspirational singing but if jazz is your favorite, try the Brunswick album of "Chicago Jazz Classics" by Benny Goodman and featuring Glenn Miller, Wingy Manone, etc.
The pieces are: *Wolverine Blues,
A Jazz Holiday, Muskrat Ramble, After Awhile, Room 1411, Jungle Blues, Shirttail Stomp, and Blue*.

MAIL PROBLEM?

Letters were discovered Tuesday in a crack under the mail box in the Smedes Post Office. The floor was torn up and several letters were discovered and promptly mailed. So this may explain some hitch in Saint Mary's correspondence lately.
