

Saints' Sallies

Now it's really summer, or at least it's supposed to be even if it is cold. Anyway it's going to be hard concentrating on the Junior-Senior and coming exams.

A pretty big bunch of Seniors took an early season jaunt to Wrightsville Beach and came back with sunburns and Marine Lieutenants. They were: Sarah Coe, Barrie, "Fanny Hill," Sister, Cleaves, Mary Dickey, El. Thomas, Ruth Hayes, May, Carrie Maie, Mary Holmes, Flee, Kat, Jean Sullivan, Lartha Parker, Margaret Martin, Willye, Mary Harris, Susan Thorpe, Tina, Gwen, Jean Campbell, Ann Edmunds, and Peggy Moran.

Loads of people have been going some these past few week-ends and having a wonderful time. Teence went home for a friend's wedding but the groom's leave was canceled.

... Carolyn DesChamps, Charlotte Andrews, and Mary Butler visited Amie and Betty in Henderson and had quite a time going to dinner parties. . . . Speaking of Charlotte, she now has a definite interest in S.A.E. . . . Kate Johnson dated a very attractive Marine while she was home. . . . Betty Griffin went to Elizabeth City last week-end, and her Navy-flier Lieutenant just-in-from-sea came up to get her and brought her back Monday. . . . Edith Hamilton had a rather confusing time at home between a Clemson cadet and a boy from State. . . . Spot, Jane, Mary C., Lucy, and Estelle all went home to Warrenton last week-end. Spot says that one very cute Air Corps Lieutenant left town to go to see a former Saint Mary's girl in Virginia. . . . Missie related that Navy guy you've heard so much about while she was home. Athalia reports a gay houseparty in Washington.

Dating A.S.T.P.'s this week-end and keeping the campus interesting looking were Charlotte Hoffman, Dabney, and Sue Thomas. . . . Charlotte really rates though, 'cause she gets Hershey bars regularly from someone in the armed forces. . . . Margo was dating someone special in the Air Corps from Durham. . . . Margaret Skidmore and Sue Moore turned out with their Dutch Marines again; good looking as ever.

Kitty Quintard really hit the jackpot this week-end—Navy wings and a picture of the cutest lookin' guy you ever saw. . . . Christine dated a High Pointer last Saturday; Mildred Chappell and Jean Wilson were with Navy "Rotercies."

Lloyd Eggleston's cousin visited her last week and is coming back for the Junior-Senior and bring some flyers. . . . Anna Margaret's Class 11 Ensign got her a date for the dance before he left for Florida duty.

Bee, Wee, and May Taylor are visiting Martha Van Patten in Richmond this week-end. . . . Langhorne and Pard are off for Morehead Beach. . . . Jane Campbell, Mary Pinckney, and Dolly Redwine are flying to Charlotte. . . . Sister Barringer will go to V. M. I. finals on June 9. . . . Susan Ashburn's Navy flyer was here to see her a little while ago, and she still looks happy.

Ditty Robinson gets papers printed especially for her from a Marine. . . . And be sure to ask Maguire

about the "HAT."

Stuart, Mary Arden, and Sallie really had dates with attractive Ensigns Saturday night. Tuck definitely has an effective "attack," because she now has another Ensign calling constantly. Stuart's date was precious, and Sallie's was the Van Johnson type—she'd like to give him to Divers if he were hers to give. . . . Mag and Maria had a gay time feeding the "hawks and crows" at the Capitol with two Marine Lieutenants who are slated for return appearances soon. . . . Betsy and Virginia report an exciting time with the Navy in Elizabeth City week-end before last.

Guess what? It's almost May; and next month is June!

every afternoon Monday through Friday in the study hall for wounded service men. Any one else wishing to do this work is invited to do so.

Annette Fulton Gives Expression Recital

Annette Thackwell Fulton, student of Miss Florence C. Davis, presented the first expression certificate recital of the year in Saint Mary's Auditorium on Friday evening, April 13.

In memory of the late President Roosevelt, Annette offered selections from Lincoln: Man of the People by Edward Markham.

The first group consisted of a monologue, The Young Reciter, by Beatrice Hertford and Fleurette and Company, a decalogue in one act by Essex Dane.

The second section consisted of ten nature poems which were divided into seasonal groups. Among the most notable and enjoyable were The West Wind by John Masefield, Stars by Sara Teasdale, God's World by Edna St. Vincent Millay, and Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening by Robert Frost.

She concluded her program with Act IV, Scene I of Shakespeare's The Merchant of Venice in which she ably portrayed all of the characters.

Annette was assisted by Marcia McMillin who sang "O Buca Dolorosa" by Sibella and the "Doll Song" from Tales of Hoffman by Offenbach, during the intermission.

All of Annette's selections were given with marked clarity of diction and enunciation as well as range and flexibility of tone.

Voice Students Present Studio Recital

Voice students of Miss Geraldine Cate gave a studio recital Thursday afternoon, April 12.

Bobbie Blum started the program by rendering Carey's Pastoral; Marjorie Pless sang a Swedish Folk song and Haydn's Mermaid's Song; Ruth Gay, Tosti's Ave Maria; Roberta Bryant, Schubert's Hedge Roses; Katherine Ives, Schumann's The Lotus Flower; Hettie Murphy, Fontenailles' Obstination; Barbara McLaughlin, two French songs by Delibes and Weckerlin; Nancy Hannah, Delibes' Les Filles de Cadix; Mary Mull, Henschel's Morning Hymn; Catherine McClamroch, MacGimsey's To My Mother and Rogers' The Time for Making Songs; Katherine Royall, Josten's Wildflowers; Frances Avera, two compositions with French lyrics by Guion; Marcia McMillin, Sibella's O Bocca Dolorosa and Offenbach's Doll Song from "Tales of Hoffman"; and Peggy Trotter, Gounod's Chantez, Riez, Dormez and Novello's The Dainty Little Damozel. Gwen Hughes finished the program with Hageman's Animal Crackers and Mirandi.
