IT'S UP TO US

Now that the war is over, the people of the United States face many problems toward bringing its people and those of other countries back to normal life.

Thousands of American boys are returning home after months of fighting on distant battle fronts. Jobs must be provided for some of them, and the others must be encouraged to go back to college in order to obtain better jobs later. They have done their bit, and America must see that they are rewarded.

The starving people of Europe must be fed, clothed, and given shelter. They are the ones who have been through all the horrors of continuous bombing, invasion, and German domination. America was spared from these hardships, and so now that the war is over, she must use all her strength in bringing these nations back to their normal state.

Highly trained workers will be needed in this work. We at Saint Mary's should try to take the right subjects in order to fill jobs which will help toward this rehabilitation. It certainly is a challenge!

THROUGH OTHERS' EYES

As a whole the student body has been behaving wonderfully—while at school. But my! When a crowd gets down town! Such "yoo-hooing" across the street, loud singing and talking, noisy gum-chewing, pushing and crowding on the bus—the poor people of Raleigh probably think somebody opened all the gates to all the cages at the zoo—and here come the monkeys and hyenas!

But don't misunderstand. Nobody expects—or wants—"little angels" instead of ordinary normal girls. But, please, remember these three things when you go out, whether down town to lunch and a movie, to a concert or play, or to a football game: remember you're a lady, and act like one; remember you're a Saint Mary's girl; and remember that your actions and behavior re-

SALLY ANN ELLIOTT

Home—Washington.
Age—19.
Ambition—to finish senior reading.
Hair 'n' eyes—brown 'n' blue.
Pet hate—insincerity.
Spends spare time—reading.
Is wild about—Marines.
Worst fault—Katie says "none."
Hobby—reading.
Always seen—talking to Mr. Moore!
Always heard—"Shall I get married?"
Favorite article of clothing—brunch coat.
Favorite food—olives.
Favorite perfume—"Tabu."
Favorite song—I Surrender, Dear.
Odd likes—Emma Katie.
Clubs, offices, etc.—Editor of the Belles; Hall Council; Woman's Auxiliary; Altar Guild; Sigma Lambda.
Remarks: Sally Ann is that cute little "curly head" that everybody sees dashing around school after Mr. Moore. She's always busy, but on those week-ends, she'll be the popular one with the date! If you see someone bubbling over with laughter, you'll know that's Sally Ann.

JANE CAMPBELL

Home—Atlanta, Ga.
Age—... just 19.
Hair 'n' eyes—light brown and blue (so says driver's license).
Ambition—to never have sinus—again.
Pet hate—getting up in the morning.
Spends spare time—asleep.
Always heard—sh-sh-hhh-hhh-hhh—

Leak, Wadesboro, Betty Adkerson, Lynchburg, Virginia, Sylvia Green, Williamston, and Betsy Dempsey, Wilson, dance marshals.

Helen Roberson Mardre of Windsor was elected president of the Business Class last week. Before coming to Saint Mary's three years ago Helen attended Windsor High School where she was vice-president of the Junior Class and a marshal. In '42 and '43 Helen was a member of the Granddaughters' Club. For the past two years she has been a member of the Hall Council and Granddaughters' Club, and a typist for the Belles. This year Helen is also a member of the Canterbury Club.

Other officers of the Business Class elected last week were: Lou Trogdon, Raleigh, vice-president; Marie McDonald, Raleigh, secretary and treasurer; Patsy McKimmon, Raleigh; dance marshal.

Cheer leaders who were elected last week are: Betty Anderson, Cheraw, South Carolina, chief; Cynthia McCaw, Bristol, Rhode Island; Margaret Hudson, Winston-Salem; Jackie Murray, Golds-

Is looking forward to—Christmas.
Odd likes—"Agamemnon."
Pet passion—simmer.
Worst fault—sleeping.
Is wild about—New York.
Favorite expression—oo-la-la.
Offices, clubs, etc.—Editor of the Stage Coach; Secretary of the Circle; Publications Staff; Sigma Lambda; Woman's Auxiliary; Hall Council; Altar Guild.

Remarks: Jane's the girl with the efficiency and capability to edit the Stage Coach, make high grades, and be in on nearly all activities. As we may all observe, "How to win friends and influence people" is certainly no mystery to that gal from Georgia!

MARY PINCKNEY

Home—Columbia, South Carolina.
Age—17.
Ambition—to get married.
Hair 'n' eyes—dirty blonde and brown.
Pet hate—liver.
Spends spare time—dreaming.
Is wild about—driving a car.
Worst fault—sleeping when I shouldn't.
Hobby—nothing in particular.
Always seen—eating.

Favorite food—tomato sandwiches.
Favorite song—Night and Day.
Odd likes—fogs and swamps.
Offices, clubs, etc.—Editor of the Bulletin; Hall Council; E. A. P.; Woman's Auxiliary.

Remarks: Mary's that gal with the slim "Lauren Bacall" figure and those cocker spaniel eyes. Whenever you hear someone talking about "Airs" for ears, you will know it's Mary (that South Carolina drawl). She admits she's always seen eating—so watch out for her when you get those boxes from home.

boro; and Mary Glen Slater, Wilson, Sigma's; Myrtle Alston, Henderson, chief; Frances Williams, Lynchburg, Virginia; Gene Rose, Henderson; Betty Smith, Birmingham, Alabama; and Violet LaRue, Raleigh, Mu's.

The French Club elected its officers on October 1. They are: Jane Bowler, Richmond, Virginia, president; Anne Prothro, Manning, South Carolina; vice-president; Nina Mae DeBerry, Roanoke Rapids, secretary; Mary Rose Crisp, Greenville, treasurer.

The Political Science Club elected its officers on October 7. They are: Christine Gray, Winston-Salem, president; Sue Everett, Palmyra, vice-president; Lenora Dempsey, Jacksonville, Alabama, secretary; Mary Spottswood Baskervill, Warrenton, treasurer.

The two newly elected marshals are Estelle Boyce and Elizabeth Ann Clinard. Estelle is from Warrenton and Elizabeth Ann is from Winston-Salem.

Freshman elections and the election of the remaining officers of the senior, junior, and sophomore classes will take place next week.

Saints' Sallies

Hear that phone ring! It could be Wake Forest, Chapel Hill or State. Anyway, here's the article on what the girls are doing.

We hear that Martha Blanton's house is hoarding men. One she tells us that (Bill) is coming from Wingate, and the next we hear that (Charles) is coming from Fork Union.

Kathleen Smithers' big moment was Saturday afternoon when she went to the Notre Dame game with her "Ramblin' Reck."

Peggy Swinson has been getting quite a rush from a cute man here lately. The girls say he's plenty all right, too!

Naturally "Tommie Tomlin" rates this edition with her not two, but three visitors from Wake Forest.

Fall weather blew in the day and with it came invitations for Saint Mary's girls from Chapel Hill and State. The gals are cutting on their brightest suits for cheer State and Carolina at games this season. Over at first we saw Nina Mae, Martha Blanton and Helen Eppes having the best of their lives. Later we ran into Jean Rose, Jane Bowler, Dora Baltzell, and Jean Strickland, Lucy Brewer, Beverly Morton and Mary Moulton were at the game too.

And speaking of football, Saint Mary's was really out to win the State last Saturday night at the State-Clemson game. Martha Patten, DesChamps, "We," Kathryn Fulton, Helen Mardre, Dolly had the most shouting for the team and kept the rain off.

By all means, ask Lib Cliver and Martha Conger about Chapel Hill. They were over there the other week-end and didn't miss a thing. Last week-end Martha Best was home for a few days.

Rain and all couldn't stop Nancy Pendleton's company on Saturday. Could it be that hair? We hear Ann Lewis is the lucky one, with two dates on Saturday.

Have you seen Helene's painter's new sign? We are sure it used to belong to a relative.

Pard was off to see the last week-end—what excitement! She, Kathryn Fulton, and Martha Van Patten got calls all from Virginia Beach. Oh yes, we heard the Navy will be coming soon to see Marty and Susan.

Be sure to ask Helen Mardre where she got that nickle "Pug."

Did you see Charlotte Hoff with that good-looking man the other day? She was all smiles; he was just wonderful! Last day in church we noticed Ann was sporting a fellow in and cute, too. Charlotte Anderson and that cute sailor were there. It really seemed like old times to see them together again.

Two gals were made much pier by the mail this week. "Pie" got a letter she'd been hoping for for days, and Margaret
