Juniors Elect Walston, Burns, Willingham

Girls Chosen President, Honor Council Representatives

Sarah Walston, Wilson, will be president of the senior class next year, and Elizabeth Burns, Fayetteville, and Ann Willingham, Marietta, Georgia, will be senior representatives to the Honor Council, all chosen in an election Wednesday, April 2.

Other nominees for president were Mary Lou Pratt, Sumter, S. C.; Sue Stowers, Bluefield, W. Va.; and Nancy Holland, Franklin, Va.

As a Wilson high school senior last year, Sarah was a cheerleader, chairman of Junior-Senior Dance Committee, Senior Superlative, and a member of the National Honor Society and the yearbook staff. At Saint Mary's, she is junior Honor Council Representative and a Mu.

Elizabeth graduated from high school last year, where as a senior, she was secretary of the Student Council, secretary of the Beta Club, and a member of the yearbook staff and the Tri-Hi-Y. This year she is a hall representative and a Mu and is in the Glee Club, Political Science Club, and Granddaughters' Club.

Ann was a cheerleader, a member of the Letter Club, Tri-Hi-Y, the yearbook staff, and was vice-president of Lucky Thirteen in Marietta high school last year. Here she is a Mu cheerleader and member of Woman's Auxiliary.

Freshmen, Sophomores To See Moons, Moons and More Moons

Moon nymphs and strains of favorite "moon songs" will fill the gym Saturday night, April 12, at the annual freshman-sophomore dance, given jointly each year by the two classes.

Carrying out the theme "Moonlight Serenade," the walls will be dressed in murals depicting songs such as "Moonlight Cocktail," "Carolina Moon," "Moonlight Serenade," and "Shine On Harvest Moon." Guests will enter by doors rimmed with blue ruffles, and souvenir hunters will reach vainly for the large gold moon which will be the center of interest in a sky of blue crepe paper.

Heads of student publications for next year as elected by the student body of Saint Mary's last week are Helen Eppes, editor of the STAGE COACH, Jane Gower, editor of the BELLES, and Ann Lucas, editor of the BULLETIN.

STAGE COACH

Helen, from Henderson, was last year president of the sophomore class at Saint Mary's, a member of the Legislative Body, Woman's Auxiliary, Granddaughters' Club, and worked on student publications as a member of the business staff of the STAGE COACH, and as a member of the BELLES staff. Also Helen was the manager of the bowling team and a member of the Mu athletic society. This year Helen is treasurer of the junior class, vice-president of the Woman's Auxiliary, and works on publications.

BELLES

Last year Jane graduated from high school in Greenville, South Carolina. She was editor of the Greenville High News, president of the Board of Control of high school publications, secretary of Quill and Scroll, and vice-president of the Block G athletic association. This year Jane is a member of the Woman's Auxiliary, a Hall Representative, and a Sigma.

BULLETIN

Ann Lucas, of New York City, has attended Saint Mary's for two years, in which time she has taken an active part as a member of the Glee Club, choir, Woman's Auxiliary, Altar, Guild, BULLETIN staff, and the Mu athletic society.

High spot of the evening will be the figure to take place at intermission, and in which the chairmen of various committees and class officers will participate.

Helping to make the freshman-sophomore something to be remembered are the committees, headed by Myrtle Alston, Henderson, decorations; Frances Drane, Monroe, refreshments; Iris McEwen, Burlington, orchestra; Aurelia Fulton, Walnut Cove, bids. Hal Thurston and his orchestra will furnish the music for dancing "in the moon mist." Refreshments will be served, and at midnight the dancers will reluctantly depart from "Moon Land."
