Last Will And Testament

Of course all the graduating seniors and sophomores can't take everything with them. In fact, there are a few things they're dying to leave behind to the lingering frosh 'n juniors.

Nimocks and Virginia Lilly pass on their perfect set-up over in East Rock to two more Fayetteville chicks, Carol Oates and Louise Howell.

Lane 'n Sugar leave their Raleigh-Annapolis plane schedules to Carolyn Wise with hopes that she'll make frequent use of them.

Lucy McPherson leaves her rusty alarm clock to any poor child who's willing to get up before the heat comes clanking on just to study English history.

Sara Walters and Lillian Whitner reluctantly withdraw their brilliant carrot-tops from St. Mary's roster of redheads; however, they confidentially leave their places to "Reds" Hartsock, Smith, and Bueeing.

And then there's Mar-ah-got Hammond who is leaving Patti String-fellow part of her drawl simply because she can't wait long enough for all of it to catch up with her.

Helen Corbett nostalgically leaves Celeste Fountain the middle pay phone—to be used expressly for calls to Carolina.

Betsy Duke leaves Pat Coulter her ability to arrange her schedule so that she'll have lots of sunporch time next year.

Frances Pearson leaves her aching feet to any news-conscious Belle who wants to get her morning exercise delivering the News and Observer.

And finally Martha Good leaves 205 Holt stocked with typewriters and red pencils for Barbara Doar and Ann Dorris to use the night before the Belles goes to press.

Schools Expect S.M.C. Belles

We will be sorry to see many of our Belles deserting the portals next year for the "Hill" and other schools. The main drawing card, Chapel Hill, will claim Ann Barber, Bobbie Love, Mary Ann Braswell, Ann Harmon Jones, Mary Ruth Mitchell, Carolyn Thompson, Pat McQueen, Toni Briggs, Mary Ruth Divine, Marie Tyler, Grace Boney, Harriett Mardre, Margot Hammond, Virginia Lilly, Mary Rea Spivey, Ann Nimocks, Elizabeth Dent, Lane Welsh, "Sugar" Dudley, Betty Huffines, Mary Lee Breece, Jean Ogburn, Ann Gillett, Ann Marie Molloy, Libby Reese, Ann Marie Miller, Dewey Owens, and Kathy Whitfield.

Attending out-of-state colleges will be Penn Anthony at the University of South Carolina, Aubrey Campbell and Margaret Burnside at Randolph-Macon, Jane Best and Betsy Duke at Sweetbriar, Carole Sullivan at the University of Chattanooga, Lee Kohlsa at Rider Business College in New Jersey, Kathy Theobald at Connecticut Teachers' College, and Jean Smith at Furman.

Jane Wrike will attend Salem; Ann Winslow, East Carolina; Patsy Battle Moore and "Red" Walters, Woman's College; and Judy Rice, Wake Forest.

Wright Heads Sigma Pi Alpha

Betsy Wright was elected president of the Sigma Pi Alpha for the coming year. The secretary-treasurer will be chosen at an early meeting next year.

Betsy is a member of Orchesis, the Dramatics Club and the Stage Coach staff. She is also one of the chief copyreaders for the Belles.

Seniors, Sophomores Leave; Pleasant Memories Remain

Well, it's about that time of year for all St. Mary's girls to get out their Kleenex and shed a few tears for all of the unfortunate Belles who have to leave for Carolina. Anyway, I am sure that each one of us has something special that we shall always remember about the sophomores and seniors who will soon be saying their good-byes.

For example, take Harriett Mardre and Sara Walters. Aren't we going to miss their performance in May Day next year? The program will never be the same without their dance. We'll miss the calm coolness of Margot Hammond too. Who in the world will be able to slow us down the way Margot does?

It's a shame that Anne Marie Miller and Libby Reese have to spoil the percentage of St. Mary's girls at Chapel Hill each week-end. Now when we think of missing Kitty Campen, we wonder if we'll miss Kitty or George.

It looks as if those Tar Heels will be looking at Kathy Whitfield's matching sweater and skirt outfits next year instead of us Belles.

There are some fortunate Belles at S.M.C. like Libbie Love, Martha Good, and Julianne Boone who will become "dish washing" alumnae. (Could it be that we'll have an increase in the members of the Granddaughter's Club?)

Carolina is certainly inheriting a

"crew" that we hate to give up. That's the Fayetteville gang. I imagine that Nimocks, Huffines, Virginia Lilly, and Mary Lee Breece will reorganize their club in Chapel Hill—probably at the Deke house.

Let's survey the Sophomore class now. You know, that class won't seem right without its "Judy Liggett" accent. I hope they'll be able to recover a normal tone of voice when they come back to school next fall.

We all hate to see cute Patsy Beams go and take all her "sunbeams" with her. Thank goodness she is leaving one ray—her roommate Barry.

Everyone is hoping for as cute a "paperboy" for next year as Frances Pearson was this year. Too bad that Frances wants to go way up north next year.

I wonder if Agnes Scott ever had a girl from Venezuela? If not, they've got a lot to look forward to 'cause Doreen Greenfield is planning to get down near those Georgia Tech boys next year.

Even though all the Belles that are leaving will be scattered near and far, we all have full confidence that they will be loyal to our school and will come back to see us often.
