Saint's Sallies

The week end of the 23rd proved to be rather busy in spite of the fact that almost everyone was still recuperating from Germans. A slightly delayed bulletin from Germans is that Mamie Ruth got a KA charm.

Arrington Johnston went to Boston for a week end at Groton, and Molly Norfleet went to New York for a week end at Williams. In the opposite direction to SC went Julia Wilcox, Sally Rembert, and Boo Baker for Greek Week. Catherine Dent went West to the University of the South while Weezie Key took off for Emory. This certainly seemed to be quite a week end for traveling.

The SAE's at State also had a pretty big weekend. Betty Covington, Janice Sutton, Nancy Page Hopkins, Mary Hill Moffit, and Anne Morris attended their party.

Three Kappa Sigs gave a party Saturday afternoon. Belles including Jane Brady, Jessie Allen, Katy Copp, Mary Spainhour, Sybil Mathis, Helen London, Josie Ward, scooter. The Clarks carried only seventy pounds of luggage which consisted of a tent, sleeping bags, and one suitcase. Mrs. Clark told us that travelling this way was very inexpensive. They stayed at Florelle Gwaltney, Sharon Ridgeway, Trisha Huske, Jane White, and Dorothy Overbeck joined in the fun.

The KA's had a calypso party. Among those who attended were Nancy Sullivan, Weezie Hill, Judy Keller, Emeline Elmore, Judy Scott, Camilla Rodman, Kit Tiedeman, Lou Johnson, Legare Benton, Linda Lunsford, Doris Price, Weezie Key, Sis Young, Dottie Pierson, Bibi Walker, and Mary Catherine Jones.

The 23rd was a "lost week end" for Celeste Fountain, but Ann Rountree got a Sigma Chi charm. Congratulations are also in order for Mary Anne Heath who will be State's KA Rose.

To start this week end off the KA's are having another party. Dorothy Overbeck, Sally Rembert, Kit Tiedeman, Doris Price, and Ease Pennington are a few planning to attend. Polly Starbuck is going to Princeton for the week end. Barbara Thomas and Margaret Hamilton are going to Carolina.

youth hostels or camped out.

Mrs. Clark described her trip by showing slides on various points of interest. All too soon assembly was over, but the students profited greatly from this talk.

Belline Writes Home

Dear Family,

Your daughter is changing into a woman. She is fast becoming a mature individual and is prepared to face the greater anxieties of life. Mater, Pater, I am pinned! He is a true man. I admit his crew-cut and braces make him appear a mere youth, but I think he is the very essence of masculinity! His speech is romantic although he stutters slightly. I'm really in love!

I hate him. He just called to tell me he wanted his pin back. He needs it to pin a girl he met last week. As far as I'm concerned he is a juvenile delinquent.

I have been studying very hard recently. Of course, I did manage to go to Germans last weekend, attend a fraternity party at Wake Forest, and date a boy from Davidson tonight, but everyone has to have some entertainment. I am really knocking myself out studying now. I even take along my notes when I go to the little store or to the movies. You may think I'm exaggerating, but I have done some of my best studying over a chicken salad sandwich.

Just found out that Miss "R" wants to see me in her office. I'm glad because now I can tell her I am leaving school for good. Everyone's against me and my talents are not appreciated. I'm coming home. Please send me some money! Don't have a big homecoming for me . . . just a small blast or something.

Your weary daughter,
Belline

P. S. Miss "R" just told me she thought my grades were satisfactory. I'm still coming home . . . to get some rest and to go on that houseparty with John Henry. Send the money anyway.

SMJC During Germans

Half of the school moved over to Carolina several week ends ago for the long-awaited Germans. Nevertheless, Belles remained at school. The following is their reactions to having to hold down the fort while their friends joined in the fun.

Faculty House . . . We go forward undaunted.

Lucy Milward . . . How do I know what I've missed? I've never been!

Gail Allen . . . What is it???

Sally Bickerstaff . . . Germans simply doesn't have what I want!

Midge Bowen . . . I had a great time. The "Dragon" was gone.

Carol Crumpler . . . It was wonderful around SMJC.

Mary Bailey . . . That week end was wonderful because we had quiet mornings for sleeping. What a change!
