Saint's Sallies

Second semester has begun and so have fraternity parties, rush parties, and dances. The week-end of February 13, 14, and 15 proved to be a big one for Carolina, Wake Forest, Duke, and Davidson. At Carolina Winter Germans were held and as usual, many Saint Mary's Belles were there. Jane Wright, Madge Gregory, Lois Lynch, Sallie Marcotte, Bonnie Margaret Turner, Nancy Sjostrom attended a Roman party at the SAE House Friday night. Saturday afternoon Chris Conner was the featured attraction at the concert, and everyone agreed she was a great success. Sikkie Sams, Lou Pittman, Anne Bost-wick, Martha Ellen Miller, Bettie Ann Whitehurst, Caroline Ashford, Kathy ()'Lenic, Bea Foote, Bonnie Brinser, Jane Gray, Georgia Cobb, and Joyce Batchelor all agreed the concert was the best ever. Seen wandering around to different fraternity houses Saturday night were Dana Borden, Sara McMillan, Louise Landauer, Virginia Anderson, Sally Blackmon, Harriet Houston, Webber Bell, Mollie Dewey, Elizabeth White, Josie Ehringhaus, Rett Weston, Julia Oliver, Emmy Davis, Betty Wright, Corty Creech, and many others.

Mary Anne Powell, Mary Chiles, Anne Edens, Betty Lou Beales, Blair Maddison, and Pat Villas had a blast at Wake Forest while Tuck Walker was at V.M.I. Barbara Clarke, Rebecca Hines, Lee Newby, Marty Pierce, Gray Watkins, Florie McLeod, and Dargan Fishbourne were at Davidson for Mid-

The Duke ATO's had a party at the Tarheel Club that weekend. Elise Brice, Beverly Bunn, Kit MeLeod, and Lucretia deLoach had a fabulous time.

The weekend of February 20, 21, and 22 found Cinda Henderson, Cathryn Potter, Emmy Davis, and Dorothy Ewing at the University of Virginia.

Jerry Lovelace and Ann Campbell were seen leaving for Notre Dame's lucious sweetheart week-

What's In A Name?

Celeste (Barnette) — Comes from the Latin word meaning "heavenly", probably sponsored by St. Celeste of France.

Hannah (Bell) — is derived from the Hebrew word for "grace" and came into wide use at the Reformation.

Octavia (Phillips) — is from the Latin word meaning "eighth" and was used in families of many children. It is sometimes used in England, but is now rare in an age when eight children are almost unknown.

Amanda (Cameron) — means "fit to be loved" in Latin.

Daphne (Connelly) — mean "laurel tree" and was the name of the nymph whom Appollo loved and who was turned into a bush. It is said that the word "has not been used as a name except for dogs' until the 20th Century.
