Dramatics Club Plans Play

Mrs. Nancy Stamey, head of the dramatics department, has announced that the St. Mary's Dramatics Club has chosen as its first play of the season Thornton Wilder's fantastic comedy The Skin Of Our Teeth. Assisting members of the dramatics club will be some State College students, several of whom have taken part in former productions here. The production date is set near the end of November.

This Pulitzer Prize play of 1942 is the story of George Antrobus, his wife, two children, and their general utility maid, Lily Sabina. All are from Excelsior, New Jersey. George Antrobus is John Doe, George Ipelvin, or the average American at grips with a destiny, sometimes sour, sometimes sweet. Members of this family are true offsprings of Adam and Eve, victims of all the ills that flesh is heir to, and they had survived a thousand calamities by "the skin of their teeth." This play is a tribute to their indestructibility.

Glee Club Elects Officers

The Glee Club met on October 5 and elected the following officers: Elizabeth White, president; Molly Sue Creech, vice-president; and Linda Lathom and Elizabeth Triplett, librarians.

Elizabeth White, a senior, from Greenville, N. C., has been active in the Granddaughters' Club, Choir, and Glee Club, and is now vice-president of the YWCA.

Sue Creech is a new junior from Selma, N. C. She is a member of the Choir, Glee Club, and Dramatics Club.

Linda, a day student from Raleigh, is a member of the Dramatics Club, Glee Club, and Glee Club Ensemble.

Sophomore Elizabeth Triplett from Lenoir, N. C., participates in the activities of the Glee Club, Dramatics Club, and Choir. Elizabeth is also on the U.D.L.

Ashford Named President Of Granddaughter's Club

Caroline Ashford, a senior, has been recently elected president of the Granddaughters' Club. This is her fourth year at St. Mary's, and she represents the fifth generation of her family to attend.

Caroline has been a member of the Granddaughters' Club and the Doctors' Daughters' Club for four years; on the staff of the Stage Coach for two years; and was secretary of the YDC last year. Besides being president of the Granddaughters' Club this year, she is business manager of the Belles an Altar Guild member, and a hall counselor. Caroline is a Mu.

Canterbury Club Begins New Year

The Canterbury Club, headed by Em Nelson, is off to a good start this year. Uniting with the Raleigh Canterbury, they have already planned many unique programs for this semester. With a definite theme in mind, they are planning to concentrate on, among other things, religion in the different phases of life, religion in politics, and religion in music and art.

The Canterbury Club, along with the YWCA, will soon sell St. Mary's blazers.

Cold Cuts Organized

The Cold Cuts met on Tuesday, October 6, to elect the following officers: Lynn Roberson, president; Margaret Turner, vice-president; Mary Neal Bolch, secretary; Gail Allen, treasurer; Nan Dame-ron, publicity chairman; Virginia Anderson, chairman of the Constitution Committee. These officers will be in charge of writing a constitution so that the sharp group will be recognized as an "organized organization".

Sigma's and Mu's Hold Pep Rally

An exciting night for all St. Mary's girls, old and new, was September 30. With wild screams the Sigma and Mu cheerleaders, aided by some of the old girls, ran from hall to hall yelling the names of all the new girls and what teams they were on. When some of the confusion died down, both teams gathered in the gym for an explanation of what was happening. The officers of both teams were introduced. The refreshments were served while the Cold Cuts entertained. All in all, the evening was very successful.

Classes Choose Officers For 1959 - '60 Session

Class elections have been under way for several weeks at St. Mary's. The seniors have elected Margaret Ruffin as secretary and Jane Tarlton as treasurer of the class. They will assist Webber Bell and Susan Murphy this year.

Margaret is from Greenville. In this her second year at St. Mary's, she is, among other things, a member of Hall Council. Jane Tarlton of Fayetteville, is also a hall counselor, in addition to being in charge of the dedication committee of the Stagecoach and head copyreader for the Belles.

The junior class has elected Lila Wolff, from Greensboro, as president of the class. Lila was a member of Student Council her senior year in Greensboro, chairman of School Spirit, president of the Red Cross Association, an officer in her homeroom for two years, a member of the Choir and Glee Club, a member of the National Honor Society, and a senior superlative.

Helping Lila this year will be Hannah Wright, vice-president. Hannah is from Wilmington and attended Rosemary Hall in Greenwich, Connecticut, her last three years of high school. There she was vice-president of her sophomore class, president of her junior class, secretary of her senior class, and head of the Student Government Association.

The junior Honor Council members are Jean Lippels, from Winston-Salem, and Amelia Yancey, from Marion. Jean attended R. J. Reynolds High School in Winston-Salem, where she was art editor of the annual, a member of the library staff and of various service clubs. Amelia attended St. Mary's high school department. She is a member of the Sigma-Mu team, the YDC, and Letter Club.

The sophomore class has elected Frances Holton, from Edenton, as president. Winston Connor, Charlotte, is vice president. Dabney Johnston, from Raleigh, is their new secretary, and Carol Brogden, from Winter Haven, Florida, is treasurer. Martha Rose, from Stony Creek, Virginia, is the Honor Council representative from the high school department. The Legislative Body representative is Tricia Armstrong, from Chapel Hill.

Frances Holton is in the choir, Dramatics Club, YWCA, and on the Mu Soccer team. Winston is also a member of the choir, in addition to being in the Letter Club, Swimming Club, the Granddaughters' Club, and the Mu soccer team. This year we find Dabney Johnston a member of the Letter Club and the Mu Soccer team. Carol is a library assistant and is also a Mu.

Honor Council representative Martha Rose is a member of the Choir, YWCA, and is a Mu. The
