

SENIOR SAINTS

SAINT SALLIES

WEBBER BELL

Town: Goldsboro.
 Hair: Too much.
 Eyes: Circled.
 Always Seen: Taking "spirits".
 Always Heard: Talking to Coalter.
 Pet Peeve: The Army.
 Favorite Frat: Look at the pin.
 Ambition: What is every girl's ambition?
 Hobby: Sackin' out.
 Utopia: Raleigh Road.

MARY NEAL BOLCH

Town: Marion.
 Hair: Twisted.
 Eyes: Bloodshot.
 Always Seen: Beating on tables.
 Always Heard: "No, not BLOTCH; its B-O-L-C-H".
 Pet Peeve: Dirty glasses.
 Favorite Frat: G.O.K.
 Ambition: To play drums for Doug Clark's "combo".
 Hobby: Chasing the Little Man.
 Utopia: Lake Tahoma.

BLANCHE BONNER

Town: Greensboro.
 Hair: Always needs combing.
 Eyes: Four.
 Always seen: Hither, thither, and everywhere.
 Always Heard: "Ooh! This makes me so mad!"
 Pet Peeve: Having to rouse "Na-Na" out of bed in the morning.
 Favorite Frat: My brother's.
 Ambition: To have enough time to do everything I want to do.
 Hobby: Knitting, at present.
 Utopia: Depends on the time of day it is.

ANNE BOSTWICK

Town: Richmond, Virginia.
 Hair: Growing.
 Eyes: Two.
 Always Seen: Sleeping.
 Always Heard: "Johnny. . ."
 Pet Peeve: The music building.
 Favorite Frat: S.A.E.
 Ambition: To be a good mama.
 Hobby: Riding in elevators.
 Utopia: Asheville.

TENNYS BOWERS

Town: Washington.
 Hair: In place.
 Eyes: Bulging.
 Always Seen: Sweating it.
 Always Heard: "I just can't get snowed!"
 Pet Peeve: Late calls for dates.
 Favorite Frat: Depends on the party.
 Ambition: To graduate.
 Hobby: Sweating it.
 Utopia: Chapel Hill.

BONNIE BRINSER

Town: Richmond, Virginia.
 Hair: Growing.
 Eyes: Bedroom blue.
 Always Seen: O. T. L.
 Always Heard: Eventually!!
 Pet Peeve: People who think I talk slo-o-ow.
 Favorite Frat: Is there more than one?

Ambition: To be on time—once!
 Hobby: Dancing (with C. G???)
 Utopia: Heavens! What's that?

MARJORIE BRYAN

Town: Goldsboro.
 Hair: Hybrid.
 Eyes: Unmatched.
 Always Seen: Doing exercises.
 Always Heard: "Dad-dim!"
 Pet Peeve: Measles.
 Favorite Frat: T. S. S.
 Ambition: Physical therapist.
 Hobby: Collecting little store stamps.
 Utopia: Monoply on ice cream.

BECKY BULLOCK

Town: Raleigh.
 Hair: Wet, of course.
 Eyes: Behind the shades.
 Always Seen: Well, nobody's invisible you know.
 Always Heard: Foghorns usually can be heard.
 Pet Peeve: People who inform me that I've just gone through a stop light.
 Favorite Frat: What? Must be a misprint.
 Ambition: Another misprint.
 Hobby: Going through stop lights at 8:30 A.M.
 Utopia: Mt. Olympus (hear they've got a cute guy up there named Apollo).

Many of the girls' first shorts and extendeds were taken recently when St Mary's evacuated to the State-Carolina game in Chapel Hill. In preparation for the game the main objective was what to wear—cotton or wool. As it turned out, either was satisfactory. After Carolina's jubilant victory the fraternities opened wide their doors and played the perfect hosts. At the Zete and Phi Gam party held at the school house were Susan Keel, Ann Ostermann, Ruth Bowles, Lucy Ford, Sophia Pike, Margaret Turner, Gail Allen, Virginia Anderson, and Erwin Parrott. Many girls were seen at the Deke party held in the Elks Club where the fabulous "Tams" played. They were: Josie Ehrlinghaus, Frances Cockrill, Mollie Dewey, Hadley Morgan, Martha Pat Bell, Joanne Rochow, Diane Blanton, Mary Lou Dorris, Sis Strong, and Alice Wilson. Enjoying the combo at the Pika House were Grey Watkins, Hannah Bell, Susan Poe, Suzanne Taylor, and Tennys Bowers. At the SAE house were Betsy Lynn, Margaret Midgette, Gay Davis, Elizabeth White, Chasie Allen, Becky Elmore, and Julia Miller. Other girls enjoying the game Saturday were Nelson Pemberton, Anita Humphries, Gene Birdsong,

Elaine Graybill, Martha Temple, Jane Wands, Sallie Quillian, Toler Yates, Arden Fobes, Sandra Franklin, Vicki Chubb, Mary Brodie Jones, Molly Cooper, Irene McGuirk, Amelia Yancey, Jackie Polk, Betsy Eagles, Carlton Savage, Betty Jones, Carter McAllister, Agnes Gouch, Maude Patton, Melchor Lowe, Susan Purdie, Pat Exum, Frances Holton, Betsy Nichols, Nancy Heath, Susan Sawyer, Em Howell, Daphne Connelly, Harriet Houston, Frankie Stutts, Mary Brent Elmore, Gayle Clark, and Mary Richard Chambers.

Another victory within the small radius of Durham and Orange County was that of Duke over Rice. Seen cheering Duke on to victory were Nan Dameron, Beverly Bunn, and Emily Anderson.

The weekend of October 9th and 10th was an important one for N. C. State fraternities. This was the ever important "rush weekend" and many of the fraternities called on St. Mary's girls to help them impress the rushees. All the fraternities celebrated the weekend with combo parties, concerts, and cabin parties.

Our special congrats to Ginny Gregory, who has a beautiful diamond ring.

UNCLASSIFIED ADS

- Compulsory:* That the music building be moved three blocks from the campus proper!
- Needed:* Sound-proof rooms for fortunate (?) girls who live next to acute-eared counselors.
- For Sale:* Holt and Penick Kitchens to anyone who has the equipment to make them useful.
- Wanted:* A repeat performance of the kitchen back-porch scene.
- Lost:* Juniors and freshmen.
- For Sale:* Superfluous campuses.
- Wanted:* More conscientious Sigmas.
- Desired:* Dates for Germans.
- Wanted:* More single male faculty members.
- Loved:* ? ?
- Wanted:* Repeat of Deb Ball weekend.
- Lost:* Light hearts.
- Found:* New burdens.
- Wanted:* A cold wave. (The weather or your hair?)
- In Desperation:* Those who took trips during the summer reading test weekend.
- Wanted:* Pins and rings.
- Needed:* One elevator operator—apply to Penick.

I love life and life loves me;
 I'm as happy as can be.
 A happier girl nowhere exists . . .
 I think I'll go and slash my wrists.

St. Mary's Girls Pledge Sororities

This fall UNC sororities have pledged twenty-four St. Mary's alumnae. After a week of parties, worry, no sleep, and more parties, the following St. Mary's belles pledged these sororities:

Alpha Delta Pi: Joan Jordan, Eloise Cowles, and Beverly Ruth Wicker.

Chi Omega: Nellie Holmes Ballou, Mary Ann Powell, Dana Borden, Georgia Cobb, Anne Williams, Jane Copeland, Luanne Hobbs, Lee Newby, Bettie Ann Whitehurst, Jane Wright, Dorothy Ewing, and Ann Wright.

Delta Delta Delta: Sally Bruce, Jane Hayes, and Ruth Whitley.

Pi Beta Phi: Georgia Fuller, Ada Ellen Hoell, Patricia Litchfield, Memrie Mosier, Catherine Potter, and Becky Roberson.

Alumnae News

On August 31, 1959, Mrs. James Madden Hatcher, Jr., the former Miss Sally Bickerstaff, gave birth to a son, James Madden III. Also during the summer, wedding bells rang for these lucky St. Mary's alumnae: Caroline Morris, Margaret McKee, Elise Brice, Noni Lineberger, Pat Villas, Kay Hamrick, Nan Bailey, and Betsy Lipford.

FRUIT BOWL

My, My. Let's see what luscious goodies we have in the Cherokee woven basket for assorted spastics. . . .

We would like to present a shining red apple to the young man who dictates his notes a tad swiftly in the high school classes.

Next prize, a hairy coconut, to the counselors who are confiscating radios.

An orange to the three wheels who didn't catch the Little Man.

A sour grapefruit to the spastic who sent the "circle" to the laundry.

This fortnight we feel magnanimously inclined to award three Sharp Prizes to those who have done the sharpest things. First, to the Cold Cuts for organizing.

Next, to the new entertainer at St. Mary's who plays the guitar and sings folk songs in class.

Finally, to the foursome who took the lift while playing bridge.