Juniors and Underclassmen Elect Officers

It looks as if there are big plans ahead for the sophomore and Freshman classes. Kit Eichhorn, newly elected Freshman class President, has announced that one of the yearly projects for the freshman class will be the selling of hot dogs from 9:30—10:00 each Tuesday and Thursday night.

At the present time, the freshman class is in the process of ordering their rings, and are discussing plans for the Freshman-Sophomore dance, which will be given by the Freshmen for the Sophomores.

The newly elected leaders of the freshman class, in addition to the president, are Anne MacKinney, vice-president; Ann Hundley, secretary; and Carolyn Brune, treasurer. Legislative body representative is Cathy Chandler, and Tay Ashford is the new Freshman Dance Marshal.

The sophomore class, led by Barney Walker, has been in the process of discussing ideas for money making projects.

Barney Walker, president; Elaine Graybill, vice-president; Martha Temple, secretary; and Margaret Glenn, treasurer are the recently elected officers of the sophomore class. Sophomore Dance Marshal is Nona Walker and Sally Stevens is legislative body representative.

Y.W.C.A. Makes Plans

The Y. W. C. A. met Thursday, October 20. Y. W. C. A. officers for this year are: President, Forrest Williamson; Vice President, Joanna Dayvault; Secretary and Treasurer, Leslie Redding. Dr. Guerry is the organization's sponsor.

The purpose of the Y. W. C. A., as stated in the handbook, is, "To help the needy and to spread Christian fellowship among the students."

The project for this year will be visits by the members of the

Y. W. C. A. to the Orphanage and the Blind School to entertain the children there. The members will also give both groups a Christmas party. During exams the Y. W. C. A. will sponsor evening services.

As a moneymaking project the Y. W. C. A. will sell St. Mary's charms in the spring. In November the club will be in charge of two assembly programs. The first program was a speaker from the Blind School. The Blind School Band will present a musical program for the second assembly program.

Nabers Heads Senior Class

The Senior class of St. Mary's is headed this year by Muff Nabers of Wilson, N. C. The other officers are Betsy Dunn, Vice-President; Becky Elmore, secretary; and Cleve Fletcher, treasurer. Ruth Mills serves as the Senior Dance Marshal.

Each year the project of the Senior Class is the Senior Little Store. Since everybody enjoys eating candy or a snack, the Little Store is a very lucrative class project.

Plans are being made now by the Senior class for the Senior Banquet, to be held sometime in December. The members of the Banquet committee are Trudy Johnson, Susanne Bowles, Becky Petrea, Archer Lee Hannah, Becky Elmore, Betsy Dunn, Joanna Dayvault, Lucy Ford, Carlton Savage, Betsy Lynn and Dede Keyes.

Recently, the Seniors residing in Penick decided to go to a lot of trouble to do something extraordinary for Friday morning breakfast. They named Friday, October 28, "Happy Friday Day" and all of the patrons of this occasion dressed in their "Sunday best." In order to celebrate in the highest fashion, the painstaking girls got up at 7:00 A.M. and before they left for their grand entrance into the dining room, they had made their beds and cleaned their rooms.

To the Seniors we owe our gratitude for breaking away from the monotony of week-day breakfasts.

Mary Christopher from Tappahannock, Virginia, is the newly elected President of the Junior class. The other officers are Winston Conner, vice-president; Jane Brooks, secretary; Cornelia Hines, treasurer; and Erwin Parrott, dance marshal.

Serving as Honor Council Representatives from the Junior class are Julie White of East Tawas, Michigan, and Courtney McDowell, of Charleston, S. C.

Jane Brooks, Cornelia Hines, Marty Watkins, Erwin Parrott, Margaret Glenn, Martha Temple, Robin Causey, Kathy Chandler, Sally Stevens.

St. Mary's to Celebrate Thanksgiving

Tuesday night, November 22, will arrive, and all the St. Mary's girls will be in a festive mood because the next day will see everyone heading for home, New York, or other exciting spots. We celebrate Thanksgiving here at school by attending a banquet. For this occasion we dress in our best and discard our "usual" attire. The Dining room also takes on a new look for the banquet. We dine by candlelight, and the tables and sideboards are decorated with arrangements of fruit. We have the traditional Thanksgiving meal of turkey and the trimmings.

The festive mood is carried out in songs by the students to the faculty, cooks, waiters, and dieticians. The Thanksgiving Banquet is one of the special traditions at St. Mary's, so let's all participate to make it the best Banquet we've ever had.
