Sigma & Mu Start Basketball

Basketball is "in the air." Winston Conner, captain of the Mu team, and Stuart Austin, captain of the Sigma team, chose new basketball players during tryouts on December 5. The girls on both teams have been scrimmaging together amidst a flurry of screams and yells from the players. Referees have tripped over the people sitting on the sidelines, several girls have sprained their ankles, and Sally Wright is constantly sliding across the floor. The Mu's have won both practice games, but not without a battle! These scrimmages have really been exciting and fun. The first basketball game took place on December 14.

The Mus are leading the Sigmas in society points. So far the Mus have won the soccer tournament, the bridge tournament, and the posture contest. The Mus have 55 society points and the Sigmas have 25. But don't let these results fool you. These points were not won easily; it was a battle all the way.

The badminton tournament is being played now, and the tumbling tournament will be played after Christmas. Both of these tournaments will have a great effect on society points. If you would like to support your team, there is still time to sign up for the tumbling tournament.

After a wonderful Thanksgiving vacation which was filled with parties, good food, rest for a few, and trips to New York for many, the St. Mary's belles returned to school to recuperate from the festivities and—you may be sure—to study for the many test crammed into the schedule before Christmas vacation. Sure enough, by the next weekend, all of these girls were ready to party again.

Quite a gathering of girls were at the Pika house at State that first Friday night. Among them were Sally Harper, Betty Lynch, Rowena Brinser, Lii Lii Ridenhour, Lila Wolff, Vicki Chubb, Edith Kellermann, Sophia Pike, Janet Dawson, Judy Meritt, Mary Lee Hinson, Carter McAlister, Anne Benson, Sally Wright, and Daphne Connelly.

There were still others who graced the State frat houses. Carolyn Broome, Frances McLanahan, and Lover Dawson went to the SAE house while Susan Keel, Betty Jones, and Trudie Johnson could be seen partying with the KA's.

Blowing Rock was the location of a Zete houseparty and making that her destination was Molly Cooper. I understand it was lots of fun, but mighty cold in "them thar hills" — especially that trip through the Blue Ridge Parkway.

In Winston-Salem the Wake Forest KA's held their annual Rose Ball, and among the lucky girls attending were Betsy Crutchfield, Mary Lou Lipford, and Betsy Dunn and Bobbie Watson, who were "very special" guests. I think they made a smash hit! Incidentally Betsy Crutchfield, who recently received a KA pin, was serenaded while at home. Congratulations, Betsy!

True to form, Chapel Hill was filled with girls from St. Mary's. Betty Jones, Lockhart Follin, Susan Poe, Beth Bellamy, Betsy Eagles, Sally Wright, Muff Nabers, Ann Benson, Chasie Allen, Betsy Lynn, Ellie Bair, and Judy Meritt were only a few of those seen there by the "watchbird."

On December 10 the SAE's, Zete's, and Sigma Chi's had a party in Durham with the famous "Zodiacs" as the big attraction. Seen having lots of fun were Edith Kellerman, Betty Jones, Daphne Connelly, Bobbie Watson, Margaret Atkinson, Betsy Eagles, Molly Cooper, Sally Wright, Ruth Bowles, Hadley Morgan, Beth Bellamy, and Winston Conner.

Christmas parties at Carolina got off to an early start and Chasie Allen enjoyed the Phi Delt party Saturday night. Seen partying at various houses throughout the campus were Lucy Ford, Mary Richard Chambers, Arden Fobes, and Muff Nabers.

The State Pika's decided to have a little variation in their parties, so on Friday night they donned ten gallon hats, guns, and boots for a cowboy party. Sophia Pike and Betty Lynch were right there to whoop it up.

Marguerite Howard, Kay Land, Dede Keyes, and Lockhart Follin were only a few who attended the numerous parties at State this weekend. And over at Duke for a weekend of fun and more parties were Susan Keel and Ruth Mills.

Congratulations are in order for Mary Brent Elmore who recently received a diamond. This lucky girl will become Mrs. Jim Lambeth next summer.

Seen on the campus for a few of the following weekends are Anne Benson, Carter McAlister, and Lila Wolff—Consolations girls!

Have You Heard Or Seen?

A Christmas Gift

Have you seen:

- Jackis Baublitz's lovely Christmas present?
- Nanne's slip? or Kay's goldfish?
- Our own little Gill's chic new hair-do?
- Carolyn Broun's Christmas decorations?
- A circle member to pay for your mug?
- Anything more beautifully done than the Orchesis program?
- Have you ever seen a cuter Santa? (and we don't mean Frances Douglass!!)

Have you heard:

- From the Navy yet, Atkie?
- All the Seniors' quips yet?
- What a fine job Anne Dickson did on the Granddaughters' Club Address Book?
- Who the body on the phone booth was?
- What Anna Cay got from her peanut?
- That you can get to Bermuda during Spring Vacation for $170?
- That there were 30 girls in the infirmary between Thanksgiving and Christmas? Any estimates on how many there will be during the time between Christmas and exam break???

It's not the gift that's wrapped and tied

In ribbons bright and gay.

It's not the most expensive one,

That folks might give away.

However much the gift might cost,

However big or small,

It's those we give right from the heart,

That are nicest of them all.

That little package tucked away

Behind the Christmas tree,

That someone placed so lovely

Where others mightn't see

Who cares the worth of what's inside;

The value or the style?

Because there's something greater there:

It holds a friendly smile!

It's not the gift that's bought in haste,

However fine the store,

But those somebody took the time

And trouble looking for.

It's love and smiles that go along,

We never count them small.

No matter what the package brings,

It's the nicest gift of all.
