SAINT SALLIES

December 17, 1960, found St. Mary's bereft of all her Sallies. Every young thing had left for home eagerly anticipating a series of gala parties.

Enjoying themselves thoroughly in Winston-Salem the 21st were Ginny Heron, Judy Merritt, Lockhart Folin, Sara Broadhurst, Marty Watkins, Mary Lou Lipfert, Betsy Kalkurst, Betsy Dunn, Gigi Saunders, Bobby Watson, and Cleve Fletcher. Winston has been known to have a good party and this one came through true to form.

After Christmas several towns in eastern North Carolina held their annual parties. Seen adding to the festivities in Goldsboro the 26th were Muff Nabers, Marguerite Howard, May Boney, Lover Dawson, Ann Benson, Rosemary Adair, Sophia Pike, Betsy Eagles, Joy Hicks, and Chasie Allen.

In some unknown fashion, everyone was ready the next evening for the Kinston party. Seen gracing this affair were Betsy Eagles, Erwin Parrott, Ruth Bowles, Hadley Morgan, Sara Broadhurst, and Rowena Brinser.

After two days rest many of the same people flocked to Wilson on the 30th. Present with not even a hint of dark circles under their eyes were Muff Nabers, Joy Hicks, Sophia Pike, Ruth Bowles, Hadley

Morgan, Mary Moore, Frances Douglas, and Ann Farmer.

Greensboro had its share of Christmas gaiety during the Spinners and 21 Club dances. Taking in the Christmas spirit in the Gate City were Lila Wolff, Betsy Dunn, Edith Kellermann, Martha Rose Lambeth, Mary Brent Elmore, and Ellen Baer. Wish you could have seen Wolfie's escort.

Last, but not least, came New Year's and two parties, one in Charlotte, the other in Raleigh, two parties which are annually popular. Seen swaying to the strains of "Auld Lang Syne" at the Charlotte Country Club were Mary Lee Hinson, Ruth Bowles, Erwin Parrott, Mary Richard Chambers, Winston Connor, Edith Kellermann, and Robin Pleasants.

Having just as much fun and blowing just as many horns at the Carolina Country Club in Raleigh were Dede Keys, Sophia Pike, Chasie Allen, Molly Cooper, Tricia Armstrong, and Vickie Coxe.

Mary Ann Carter's Christmas was made complete by the beautiful engagement ring Ed gave her on Christmas Eve.

Of course, all good things must come to an end, and they did. However, we can catch a vague glimpse of Spring Vacation far away in the mists of March.

Sigma-Mu Continues Tournaments

The basketball tournament is in "full swing" now. Before Christmas the Mu's won the first game of the tournament and then came back from the vacation to win the second game, beating the Sigma's by only two points. This game was played on January 4 and showed effects of the Dixie Classics, because both teams were "red hot". The third game, played on January 9, proved to be a real thriller, because the Sigma's needed the victory in order to stay in the tournament. Of course, the Mu's were out to win this game, because if they did, they would win the tournament.

Plans are being discussed for a Student - Faculty basketball game. Also, plans are being made for a St. Mary's-Meredith College basketball game, and possibly for a St. Mary's-Peace College game, too. Last year, St. Mary's beat both these schools in basketball. We hope to do as well this year!

The badminton tournament is still being played. The winner will be announced in a week or so. The tumbling tournament took place in the gym on January 9 at 5:00 P.M., after the Sigma-Mu basketball game. Three faculty members were the judges for this tumbling tournament. Girls competed individually and in groups for top honors. Some of the stunts performed were hand stands, forward and backward dives, angel stands, and many other extremely difficult stunts.

New Year's Resolutions

- Cookie Arthur: not to wear the same gray skirt and sweater every day.
- Jane Wands: to drive more carefully (she had two wrecks over Christmas).
- Toler Yates: to lose ten pounds by the end of the school year.
- Mary Larsen: to make "Birdlegs" miserable for the rest of the year.
- Robbin Pleasants: to hold my shoulders up.
- Erwin Parrott: to learn to enunciate clearly.
- Jackie Baublitz: to forget the "culls" in my life.
- Winston Connor: not to be in Charlotte next New Year's Eve.
- Ann Martin: to be a good girl.
- Joanne Rochow: not to flirt.
- Cynthia Anderson: not to lose my temper.
- Rosemary Adair: to never accept another blind date.
- Betsy Nichols: to stop wearing false eyelashes.

Can You Imagine?

- Lauson being quiet?
- All the petitions being passed?
- All the water fountains spouting champagne-eh Jody?
- Everyone passing Psychology?
- The Christmas holidays extending through June?
- No Saturday classes?
- Exam Week as Party Week?
- Seven day weekends?
- A good meal?
- Mary Richard spending a Saturday night at school?
- Forrest and Cleve not studying?
- Betsy Vaden not smiling?
- Alice Dupree six feet tall?
- 205 Penick being clean?
- 20 days for Brent?
- Ruth Bowles in the Library?
