DO YOU REMEMBER?

Do you remember walking to the Little Store and out the front walk and kicking the kicking posts in hopes of getting a letter? These times are no more because both of the kicking posts have disappeared. These two posts have been traditions at St. Mary's for a long time: if you kick the post as you leave campus, you will receive that long-awaited letter.

The kicking posts have witnessed much excitement on front campus. They've survived panty raids, cars running over them and late-comers speeding around the circle. They've withstood all kinds of weather, several coats of paint, including red polka dots, and general abuse.

But now both kicking posts are gone and an old tradition has been destroyed. Does anyone know what happened to them?

DR. MORRISON

campus. The faculty and students are welcome to offer suggestions for the betterment of St. Mary's.

The new dean has several impressions of her new position. Morrison feels that "no restrictions or constrictions make pleasant; on the other hand, no set guidelines it is difficult to know if you are doing the right thing."

"I realize the greatest support in undertaking the new job is the support of the faculty. I am very conscientious of this fact," states Dr. Morrison.

WHAT'S THE POOP?

by Lou Latham

Did you know that . . . Connie Brooks loves the Fire Peniek water fights. (So does Sheard Mason).

The back door is closed to Woody Bobbitt.

Byars loves to ride tractors. Holly Dearstyne really has Don Juan.

Stephanie Mann really tries harder.

Our May Queen, Cleo, stays out until 11:45 on a week night date.

Sylvia and Beth D. have been visiting Elaine lately.

Stone House is going to be on Jeopardy next week.

Bo-lo Tournaments were held during Exams. Just ask Banana Slutz, Gayle, Becky, and Ann.

Catherine Hill has a "sunshine."

Mattie Simmons does not belong to the Y. D. C. (Wait until "Daddy Gene" hears about this!)

Beth Franz thinks Volkswagens are comfortable, especially when they are parked at State.

Lou Latham has a "Hippy" boy friend.

Laura Parnell rates her dates.

Pat Pollard's blind date to Carolina was not really blind.

Everall Aiken was the director and producer of Second Peniek's production of "A Night on Second and P."

Debbie Cline and Branch are really considering marriage.

LIBRARY CORNER

The Library has a variety of material on the Middle East for the annual foreign studies program. There are articles which connect the Middle East with other countries such as "A Mideast Victory for the U. S.," "As the British Pull out: Another Big Vacuum," and "The U. S. in the Middle East Today." Other articles center on specific countries of the area such as "Cyprus, Then and Now," "Ancient Iraq," "Israel Gets Set for Prolonged War—A First Hand Report," "Lebanon: Target in a Holy War," and "If Libya Lines up With Nasser."

Large(colorful maps and books such as "The Arabs," "The Middle East in Transition," and "Modern Egypt" are also available.
