

What's The Poop?

Third Middle Smedes has been keeping its counselors in line. Janet Blair is "ringed" to Doug Ellis. Kerry Wheeler's boyfriend's mother gave her a cucumber for Christmas. Third East Smedes is running a poll on sex. Come to Becky's body shop from 9:30 to 10:00. Mac, did you have fun at the Executive Park Hotel? Marilyn Kirkland, what happened Friday night? Cathy Neal, what's the giant's name you dated? Jerry Register, what do you hear every nite at 12:15? Pam DeVere, how does Ken like your stuffed pup? We hear the weather is great at Virginia Beach. Lizbeth Davis, what's the matter with your tail . . . or cotton pickin' time? Rucker, why can't you take Gordon seriously? Ann Suhling loves to collect that frat jewelry. We hear the Sigma Nu House is getting a new name - "House of 1000's Hands" . . . right Trish? Molly Addison, what record did Brad play for you? Helen Pruden, who was it that almost ruptured your eardrum? On the morning of June 20th, Rebecca Moser will release her new book entitled The Blind Leadeth The Blind. Hey Polly Bonner! what was your date Saturday night expecting to see on you? Second Penick, is it true that the P.R. is the best place for a birthday party? Peaches Rankin, what is your favorite record? Mary Kemp Mebane and Polly Bonner, were you a little nervous about your 23 year-old dates? Lyn Lacy, do you always cry at birthday parties? Shug Dawson, is it true this is your 5th David? Sophomores have declared this as National Party Semester. The Seniors in Cruik love their new phones. Cyn Broadway sells mouthwash. What is it Kate sells? St. Mary's has been unofficially renamed Raleigh International Airport. Everyone can now relax; there is a college for even the C student.

BELLES and BEAUS

Joan Thames engaged to Steve. ? ? ? Rebecca Moser engaged to David Beaver, ATO at UNC. Betty Ann Queen lavaliered to David Staley, SAE at State. Ann Suhling lavaliered to Joe Nelson, Pika at Hampton-Sydney. Nancy King engaged to Bill Bell, UNC-Charlotte. Mary Sherbert Kirton lavaliered to Bill Herman, EAM at State.

Can You Imagine?

A good meal Ten letters in your P. O. Box for you Self-limiting hours St. Mary's without pop tests . . . or Bill Millikin No summer school Dr. Morrison in wire-rimmed glasses and bells Miss Jones with long hair Miss Horne with time to spare Mr. King not bubbling at breakfast Assembly without films GRADUATION for Seniors.

THIS YEAR ONLY A FEW GIRLS MADE NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS:

- Read English every night . . . Nancy Saint Amand
- Quit being such a "bum," and start doing things! . . . JoAnn Twyman
- Be nice . . . also not stop drinking . . . Roonie
- Quit biting fingernails . . . Anne Roberts
- Go on a diet . . . Cathy Neal
- To try to be less clumsy although it's physically impossible . . . Ella Morgan
- To try to put up with my counselors Queenie and K.P. . . . Janet Burhoe.

Note: If you have any items you wish to be included in Society News, please contact Ellen Parrish.

MOVIE REVIEW "Tell Me That You Love Me, Junie Moon"

"Tell me that you love me, Junie Moon" is a movie about three freaks (because of deformities or accidents) who decide to live together. They rent a dilapidated old house and begin their life of trials together. These three must endure the morbid curiosity of others, the accompanying prejudice, and their own conflicting personalities. The flashbacks give background information and bring us up to the situation at hand. The intervention by a concerned man is a catalyst in bringing the three closer together in understanding than in their physical conditions. Final understanding and love comes through the loss of one of the group.

The movie was realistic and the flashbacks were quite graphic in their presentations of the backgrounds and accidents. The movie was disturbing in that it presented a trait common in all of us - the hatred and fear of those who are not normal. The picture became tedious in some places and sometimes the realism became tiring.

HELP NEEDED:

A day care center for children of working mothers needs story-tellers and student helpers any weekday afternoon from 3 to 5. The center is off Oberlin Road near Cameron Village. Twenty children in all. Fully accredited center. If interested in helping, contact Don Roberts for details.

WANTED:

Two girls to help consume my wife's cooking and still be able to play bridge. Apply on a Friday to J. H. King.

HELP NEEDED:

Student to help serve breakfast to needy children, 7:30 to 9:30 A.M., Monday, Wednesday, or Fridays. For details, contact Hunter Foreman or Mr. Roberts.

CUSTOMERS WANTED:

For handmade leatherwork by Southside boy attempting a little self-help. Leather purses, billfolds, bookmarks, many others. Less than store prices. For details, contact Lide Doffermyre or Mr. Roberts.

ATTENTION SENORAS!

Les desea a todas un próspero año nuevo El Departamento des Espanol, Y que todas estudien como locas. Entonces dueden Vds, Plasticar por todas partes en la noble le ngua de Cervantes.

ATTENTION!

Al Capp, renowned cartoonist and creator of the comic strip, "Lil Abner," will speak in Raleigh, February 13, in Reynolds Coliseum. Capp's visit is sponsored by the Wake County Exchange Clubs, and proceeds from the program will go to a Law Enforcement Widows Fund being set up by the clubs. Capp, a frequent speaker on college campuses, will talk on "America Today" and will conduct a question and answer period afterwards. See Jane Darden for tickets.

WANTED TO BUY:

Susan Midgette (324 Smedes) would like to buy a pair of used tap shoes, size 7 1/2 or anything close to it.

FOR SALE!

"Grand Funk Live Album" for $4.00 (Record Bar price $4.79) double album. Has been played only twice. Complete with large poster. Gail Perry, 302 Cruik.

If you have anything to buy or sell, any items lost or found, or public service announcements you wish to include in this column at no charge, please contact Jane Darden. No commercial advertising please! The editors reserve the right to accept or reject any items submitted.

"NEXT TO OF COURSE GOD AMERICA"

"next to of course god america i love you land of the pilgrims and the proud" forth oh
say can you see by the dawn's early light my country 'tis of centuries come and gone
and are no more what of it we shall do worry
in every language even deaf and dumb thy sons acclaim your glorious name
by gorry
by jingo by gee by gosh by gum
why talk of beauty which could fade
more beautiful than those happy heroic dead who rushed like lions to the slaughter they did not stop to think they were instead then shall the voice of liberty be mute?"

He spoke. And drank rapidly a glass of water.

- e. e. cummings

Love Isn't (Taken from February 1968 BAZAAR)

Love isn't a 150-karat ruby heart but for God's sake don't send it back.
Love isn't strangers in the night. You'll only hate yourself in the morning.
Love isn't a four letter word - write it. he loves you more than you love him.
Love isn't a trip to the moon on gossamer wings-especially if the moon was a little something wrong with that last sugar cube.
Love isn't a love letter with "divine" spelt "devine." Just because you're the world's greatest lover doesn't mean you have to be the world's worst speller.
Love isn't much fun at all unless you're ticklish somewhere.
Love isn't a roaring fire in a mountain lodge alone with Paul Newman - but isn't that something to think about?
Love isn't half bad if you get your way ninety percent of the time.
Love isn't in the stars if you're Gemini and he another No matter what you do, Saturn is always in the wrong place.
Love isn't an African safari unless you get two record heads - one to bring the white hunter back alive.
Love isn't all it's cracked up to be but until they crack up something better there's nothing like having a crack at it. Will you turn on the lights, please?