ever changing status in the business community. Nine out of ten women are expected to return to work sometime in their lifespan with the average worklife estimated to be 25 years per married woman. At present, one out of five women with college degrees are employed in non-professional work, due to either sex discrimination or their failure to secure a marketable job skill in college.

The Coalition of Women Students, as a potential on-campus organization, wants to inform you of what you can expect in the future, but to fulfill this purpose, we need your involvement and support. We have several community projects planned, which can only prove successful if you BECOME INVOLVED.

SPORTS OUTLOOK

JEAN LYBROOK

Miss Jones is hoping for a winning team in the Tennis Department this year. There are not many members from last year's team but she feels confident in her new girls.

The schedule in tennis for this school year is:
Meredith—October 25 (away)
Campbell—March 15 (away)
High Point—March 21 (home)
Atlantic Christian—March 23 (away)
UNC-G—March 28 (home)
East Carolina—April 4 (away)
Meredith—April 6 (home)
Campbell—April 11 (home)
Duke—April 13 (home)
UNC-CH—April 18 (home)
Tri-March (Appalachian, UNC-G)—April 21 & 22 (away)
Wake Forest—April 25 (home)
Some of the girls on the Tennis Team have told what tennis has meant to them at St. Mary's"

Jean Little—"It's been a lot of hard work and has given me a goal to work for. It's an opportunity to do something for yourself as well as for the school."

Anna DuBose—"I have learned what a team can do when they have team spirit and the will to win."

Cameron Cutting—"It has meant hard work but Miss Jones has really helped me learn a lot of tennis."

Miss Jones has been playing tennis since she was sixteen. She has played in many tournaments and has been coached by some of the great tennis players and instructors. She tries to teach the tennis player "so that when she leaves St. Mary's she has fought many battles on the court and, in the long run, she will be able to compete in life, as on the court."

She feels that with the new gym she will be able to make the department even better.

"I would like for tennis and golf at St. Mary's to be two of the most outstanding programs not only in the state but in the South. Both of these sports are two of the most popular activities in America today for youth and adults and throughout the United States. The trend in colleges is to teach lifetime sports."

She also feels that the other athletic departments will greatly benefit from the new gym. "We have never had competitive swimming at St. Mary's but with the addition of the Olympic Size Swimming Pool there will be a place for this type program. The Sea Saints have each year put on an outstanding program but for the girl who is a competitor there is a need for a swimming team. The dance groups through the years have made themselves known through outstanding programs, but with the new facilities we will be expecting even greater things from them in the future."

Miss Jones feels that to achieve excellence in almost any pursuit, the unconscious mind must be allowed to take over. When you are up against a good opponent he forces you to play a fast game. When you play a fast game you have no time to think, and when you have no time to think you commit fewer errors.

Over the entrance to the great center court at Wimbledon, England, and also over the marquee steps to the stadium at the West Side Tennis Club, Long Island, are identical signs. They carry two lines from Kipling's "If" which show Miss Jones' philosophy that the great tennis player must have Courage:

"If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster

And treat those two imposters just the same . . ."

Academic Dean

President of academic affairs.

Becoming interested both in more challenging work and in returning to North Carolina, he came to St. Mary's.

"I've known about St. Mary's all my life," commented Dr. Miller, "mainly from past dating experiences."

Although he has no personal advisees, he says "My job is to help the students graduate. I'd like to help everyone."

Stated Dr. Miller: "I really enjoy being a dean, but I wouldn't want to give up teaching, either. I am thoroughly enjoying every aspect of St. Mary's."
