MAY QUEEN: FRANNYE FOWLE

by Shannon Taylor

St. Mary's has various big events during its school year, but one of the most entertaining for students, faculty, parents, friends, and visitors is the Spring Festival. There is a presentation of the court followed by various dance routines choreographed by the students and Sue Brown. There is always a frenzy to get everything ready for this big event. Also, somehow every year it rains off and on the whole week of the Spring Festival. The morning of the event is always cloudy but by some miracle it is hot and sunny by three o'clock, just in time for the court presentation. Our Spring Queen this year was Sadie Francis Fowle, who is known to her family and friends as "Franny." Franny is a two year girl from Washington, North Carolina. She is very involved with the St. Mary's community in every aspect. She is a member of two clubs: Scoop and Circle. She is a Cold Cut, the Vestry Senior Warden, a Hall Counselor on First East Cruikshank, and the Senior class Secretary. She also works in the St. Mary's Bookstore during her spare time. When you see Franny around the campus she always has a bright cheery smile for you or a note of encouragement for the needy and always she helps promote school spirit. She is undecided, as of now, whether she will continue her education at North Carolina State University or UNC-Chapel Hill. She has, however, definitely decided to major in Speech Communications or Public Relations. "And maybe someday," Franny added, "I will return to St. Mary's." Franny is definitely the much acclaimed "Typical St. Mary's Girl." She is involved, energetic, outgoing, and always thinks of ways to stay at St. Mary's a little bit longer (in Smedes of course!)
