

Former Saint Mary's student Jennifer Driver, posed on the cover of "Playboy." Do you think she hurt Saint Mary's reputation?

BY MEGAN HOTZE AND KAREN WORK
STAFF WRITERS

MASON WAITES-COLLEGE
BOARDER

"Being in "Playboy" was her decision. If she models, I think her posing for Playbody should be accepted if it is what she enjoys doing. In my opinion I don't think it should hurt Saint Mary's reputation, but in actuality I believe it did."

ANNA ROGERSON-HIGH SCHOOL BOARDER

"I don't think so because she did not pose nude. I think people have bigger things to worry about."

DR. MARGARET GRISSOM-ENGLISH PROFESSOR

"No, I think Saint Mary's reputation is a lot broader than this one incident can affect."

DR. STEVE ESTHEIMER-HUMANITIES PROFESSOR

"No. It is an exploitative magazine. If does not have a whole lot of justification for being, so I'm sorry to see us it to further herself. She needs to use her looks and talents differently."

NOEL HAMLIN-HIGH SCHOOL
DAY STUDENT

"No-I think it's good publicity because the guys will look at her and say "Wow! I need to meet a Saint Mary's girl!""

SUSAN TAYLOR-COLLEGE
DAY STUDENT

"Yes-I think the "News & Observer's" articles have hurt Saint Mary's. I don't think that they should have publicized that she went to Saint Mary's. It gives us a bad image,"

Publication Class hard at work! (Photo by Noel Hamlin)

Hungry ladies line up for Labor Day picnic while the band played on. (Staff photo)