

SOUTHWIDE BAPTIST

and Ridgecrest Reporter

Vol. 1, No. 2

FRIDAY, December 9th 1921.

Our Slogan—

"Take Your STATE PAPER and SOUTHWIDE BAPTIST for Baptist News of 18 Other States"

Published Weekly at Marshall, N. C. and Knoxville, Tenn.

The Southwide Baptist is independent and privately owned, but has come to the kingdom to serve Southern Baptist churches and institutions. Southwide Baptist is synonymous with wide-awake Baptist.

CONTENTS

"Spilmanographs" each week by B. W. Spilman, President of North Carolina Baptist Convention

"This and That, Here and There" by Frank Willis Barnett, editorial staff Birmingham Age-Herald

"Meditation," each week by Bartlett A. Bowers, pastor of Broadway Baptist Church, Knoxville

"Southside Pulpit," each week by James Edward Dillard, pastor of Southside Baptist Church, Birmingham, and Chairman of Ridgecrest Board

"British and Canadian Notes" each week by F. A. Bowers

Editorials

Cream of Thought by Amos Clary

News-Record

Book Reviews by J. E. Dillard

THE SOUTHWIDE BAPTIST is $2.00 per year. Act on the impulse to-day and send a one dollar bill for six months subscription. If it is lost in the mails notify us and we will send the paper anyhow.

A subscription to the SOUTHWIDE BAPTIST is the best Christmas present for a Baptist.