

Dr. Ihrig Gets Book Published

Dr. Mary Ihrig, professor of English at Mars Hill, has authored a new book entitled Emerson's Transcendental Vocabulary: A Concordance which is being published by Garland Publishing Company of New York City. The new book provides access to nine fundamental terms in transcendental thinking in the seven volumes of the Centenary Edition of the Complete Works of Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Dr. Ihrig, a native of Hannibal, Missouri, earned her undergraduate degree from Shurtleff College in Alton, Ill. She has a master's degree from Washington University in St. Louis, Mo., a divinity degree from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, and a Ph.D. from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

She has been a member of Mars Hill's faculty since 1960 and is a member of several curriculum committees. A well-known musician in addition to her other talents, she has been church organist for several churches in the area including the Mars Hill Baptist Church. In 1972 she was named in the "Outstanding Educators of America" volume.

Guess Who

Now is your chance to win two free movie passes to either the Friday night or Sunday night movies on campus, compliments of Jay Hirst and the Films Committee. All you have to do is guess who is pictured below in a 1947 photograph. We will give you one clue — he is on the staff of the college (not a teacher or in the administration). In case of more than one correct answer, the winner will be drawn at random. Fill out the blanks below and either drop it off at the Hilltop Office or mail it to P.O. Box 1148-C. Contest ends January 28, 1982.

What Do You Think...

by Andy Behl

QUESTION: How do you think this January Term has gone for you, and how do you feel about this being the last one at Mars Hill College?

"They shouldn't do away with it because it's a good break between semesters." — JAY HIRST - Senior

"I'm glad that they're doing away with it because it means a longer break." — KEITH DILLS - Senior

"I'm enjoying not doing much of anything." — ANDY HILL - Sophomore

"It's been great, but I don't care because I'm not going to be here." — SAM FOX - Senior

"It's been a good January Term and it's sad that this is the last one." — MELANIE SMITH - Senior

"Considering that I only have an hour and a half of class each day, it has been pretty good. I'm glad it's the last one because it has outgrown its popularity." — PHOEBE LEE - Junior

"I've enjoyed my class. I'm glad that it's the last one because next year, I can spend more time with my loved ones over the holidays." — CINDY WATSON - Junior

"I think that the January Term is good in the sense that it allows the student to take an enjoyable class without the pressure of a full term, yet gaining some knowledge in a certain area. I think it's bad (doing away with it) because during January Term, the student is kept in contact with the college." — LESTER PURRY - Sophomore

"I like the January Term because I like the break between semesters. With the choices of classes they offered, I'm glad it's the last one." — KAREN COOLEY - Sophomore

"I like my class, but I think that January Terms are a waste of time because there is too little to do. Praise God that this is the last one." — CHERYL McPHERSON - Sophomore

"I have really enjoyed my class, but I feel that the time could be spent more wisely going ahead with the regular semester because the students have too much spare time and nothing to do." — SUSIE MATHIS - Sophomore

"January Term is fine and in my opinion it should be continued because it's a nice break from school." — MITCHELL BEAL - Senior

"I think it's gone great, and I'm sorry it's the last one because it gave me some free time to be with the people I love." — PENNY ELLIOTT - Senior

"This January Term has been going wonderfully, and I think that it is very valuable. People will be missing something when they take it away. I'm glad that I got to enjoy it the four years I was here." — RICHARD "INDIANA JONES" HALL - Senior

"My January Term has been going pretty good and it's relaxing because I'm getting ready for a big Spring Semester. They should continue them because it's a good time to relax. January Term has made Mars Hill a unique place because not many colleges have them." — RICKY WILLIAMSON - Senior

"Basically, I feel this way about January Term and Mars Hill. January Term has been good, and most students agree. This is another example of how the administration has lost touch with the needs and wants of the students." — FORD MAUDLIN - Senior
