Mars Hill Lions moved their record to 2-0 defeating Liberty University in their home opener at Meares Stadium. The Lions, led by a tenacious defense that held the Flames to only 154 total offense, got on the scoreboard first, when sophomore defensive tackle, Aaron Gilmore exploded into the Liberty endzone and tackled Charles Dorsey for a safety 1:27 left in the game. Following the Liberty free kick, the Lions drove 47 yards in just three plays scored on quarterback, Joe Pizzo's run at the 13:04 mark. The big drive was the first play, when tight tailback, Pete Calhoun with a 13-yard completion. Mars Hill led 8-0 on Pizzo's two-point pass attempt

The Lions scored on their next possession as Pizzo connected with Calhoun on a 9 yard scoring play. Place kicker, David Shealy added the PAT. This drive had been set up by roverback, Greg Bailey's fumble recovery.

Aiken

Anyone in Aiken's shoes would ask themselves if all this work is really worth it. The best feeling in the world is to see a receiver catch a touchdown pass or a running back going for a score with a block I made. Man, it sends chills down my spine," he concludes.

Aiken knows that this is his last chance to get those "cold chills". Aiken is the only senior starting on the offensive line and hopes to lead the other players by his example. "I play every day like it's my last and always do the best I can," he said.

When football is over, Aiken hopes to finish his business degree and find a job in his home in Travelers Rest, South Carolina, but if the job market is tight, Aiken wants to take the training he received in the National Guard and join the Regular Army as a Second Lieute-
