

CROSSROADS
 VOLUME II-ISSUE 6
 Published bimonthly by Belmont Abbey College,
 Belmont, North Carolina.
 Second class postage paid at Belmont, N.C. 28012.

Crossroads is intended to serve as a forum for the several constituencies of Belmont Abbey College. It will also attempt to provide significant information about the many issues which affect higher education generally, and this college in particular. The editors welcome diversity of opinion; editorial standards aimed at will be those of Christian ethics, good taste, and Journalistic quality.

The Editorial Board of Crossroads includes students, faculty, and administration. Additionally, several editors at large have volunteered to cover such areas as student affairs, humanities, and science and religion.

Correspondence should be directed to: Editor, Crossroads, Belmont Abbey College, Belmont, North Carolina, 28012.

STAFF
 Acting Editors -
 Joe Coffey Jr.
 & H. Allen Morris II
 Column Editor -
 Rev. James Solari
 Alumni News Editor -
 Mrs. Mary Cook
 Editorial Advisor -
 Dr. George Herndl

PHI KAPPA THETA Elects Officers

Phi Kappa Theta Fraternity, Alpha Rho Chapter, a social fraternity on the campus, recently elected officers for 1974-75.

They are: President, Michael Holland, a junior from Petersburg, Va.; Vice-President, Donald Hatchett, a sophomore from Newport News, Va.; Treasurer, Bernard Scibienski, Jr., a junior from Fords, N.J.; Parliamentarian, Christopher McDonald, a junior from Kearny, N.J.; I.F.C. Representative, Kenneth Heretick, a junior from Hopewell, Va.; and Secretary Gerand Sheepan, a sophomore from Wildwood, N.J.

Phi Kappa Theta is a national social fraternity located on many American College and University Campuses. Brother Gregory Corcoran, O.S.B. is Chapter Advisor and Moderator.

'15 - Congratulations to Henry Ginther, who was 78 years old on February 13. He would like to hear from some of the Class of 1915.

'48 -- Congratulations to Barbara and Bob Asbury on the arrival of George Page Asbury II on March 20. Page joins his two brothers, Mark (13) and Scott (9) and sister Melinda (4). Nicholas Gettino is project engineer - phase array radar - with General Electric Co. in Syracuse, N.Y.

'53 - George Younginer is a partner in resort marketing of South Carolina, promoting the recreational resorts of Pinehurst, N.C., Carolina Shores at Calabash, and Lake Arrowhead above Atlanta. He also has a manufacturers' representative agency covering the southeast, now in its tenth year.

'57 - Marine Lt. Col. Jim Mead is with the Marine Fighter Attack Squadron 232 for training exercises in Naha, Okinawa.

'59 - Charles Field has been named head baseball coach at Towson State College in Maryland, where he has been for eight years now. He has had thirty-five articles on baseball or basketball printed in the last two years, one book in 1974. Congratulations, Charlie!

'60 -- Congratulations to Stan Dudko, head soccer coach at the Abbey, who was chosen for the seventh consecutive year by NAIA District 26 as the outstanding coach of the year. His team also won its seventh district championship at the close of the 1973 season. It was interesting to read in the paper that Peg and Don Conroy's son Pat's book, "The Water is Wide," is being made into a movie starring Jon Voight. The movie is titled "Conrack." How about a letter, Peg; I still remember fondly the Wives' Auxiliary and the Abbey wives get-togethers.

'61 - Thanks for your note and good wishes, Marjorie Drake, and for the news of Henry (see Class of '66). Marjorie teaches at the N.C. Orthopaedic Hospital in Gastonia. Enjoyed the long letter from Bill Ouchark which Mr. Hanahan let me read - the first communication in fourteen years! After leaving the Abbey, Bill received the B.S. and M.A. degrees in Geology from V.P.I. and is a Geophysicist with Phillips Petroleum in Bartlesville, Oklahoma. He married Anne Kyle in 1963 and they have two boys, Billy Joe, nine, and Bobby, three. Hope you discover that major oil or gas field, Bill!

Alumni News

BY MARY COOK

'62 - Father Paschal Morlino is associate pastor at St. Vincent Basilica and director of Adelphi House, a home for homeless boys in Latrobe, Penna. He also works with teenage boys with no home or coming from deprived homes. Fr. Paschal is attached to St. Vincent Archabbey in Latrobe. Joe Mendel is vice president of Booz-Allen & Hamilton, management consultants in New York, and presently handling their merger and acquisition group.

'63 - It was good to talk to Mike Maloney on the telephone and reminisce about the days of the "Singing Jamaicans" when Mike, Jim Caltagirone and Robbie Lighthart were the hit of the campus. Mike and Yvonne and their three children live in Bel Air, Maryland.

'64 - John Fahey, Jr. is owner of Fahey Travel Service, Inc., and Fahey Associates, realtors based in Torrington, Conn. Bob Kelleher will enter private practice of Dermatology in June in Marietta, Georgia, upon completion of military obligation in Augusta, Ga. George Lund is employed in a civilian capacity for the U.S. Army Reserve and lives in Charlotte.

'65 - Congratulations to Carrie and Glenn Boone on the arrival of Kyle Jennifer on September 24. They have one other child - Dereck, two and a half - and Glenn is with the Corps of Engineers in Norfolk. Tom Schlunz received his Ph.D. in medieval history from the University of Illinois last June and is now on the history faculty of the New Orleans campus of Louisiana State University.

'66 - Congratulations to Wilma and Henry Drake on the arrival of Ashley Turner on December 18. They have another son, David, who was born when Henry was a senior here at the Abbey. Henry is an attorney in Wadesboro, N.C. Joseph Daniel O'Connell is with the Foreign Service in Sao Paulo, Brazil. It was good to hear from Eileen Clarke and have news of the children, and also to see Bill, former head basketball coach at the Abbey, when he brought his team from Walsh College (Ohio) to play in our Christmas tournament. Eileen enclosed a Yale football brochure featuring Brian, who is a senior there and Yale's kicking ace. Eileen teaches in Shaker Heights, Ohio, where they live. Richard Zittel sells advertising for "Chemical Purchasing Magazine" and he and Kathy live in Princeton, New Jersey. Allan Willis has been named editor of the Winston-Salem Sentinel editorial page. He and his wife and three children live in Winston-Salem.

'67 - Gregory Wessell is administrator - comptroller of San Sierra (California) Business Systems, Inc. in Sacramento and is taking courses toward the MBA. Joe King is systems programmer for Fairfax County Government and lives in Sterling, Va. Dan Talley visited the Abbey in March. He is general manager of Talley Hosiery Co. in Gastonia.

'68 - Capt. John Kelleher has been a helicopter pilot in the Marine Corps since August of 1969. He currently lives in Meridian, Miss., and is transitioning to jet aircraft. He was married in November 1970 to Kathleen Marie Connelly and they have one child, Shannon, aged two. Bernie Lange is with Reynold's Metals Co. in Richmond, Va., in their production control department. He and Carolyn live in Richmond's West End. Frederick Walz was admitted to the New Jersey Bar in December. Congratulations! Felipe Villalon is conversion manager for Wachovia Services, Inc. in Winston-Salem, N.C. Tommy Hirsch graduated from Seton Hall Law School in January. He is now working in Trenton in the Federal clerkship with Federal District Judge Clarkson S. Fisher. Russell Bayne has been elected president of the Mt. Holly Rotary Club and the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

'69 - Paul Maisano received the MBA in December from Iona College. He is still working with Equitable Life in New York City as account manager for their pension department, and attending National Guard on weekends as a Second Lieutenant. Congratulations to Nita and Bill Daley on the arrival of their first child, William Christopher (Chris), on September 25.

(cont. on pg. 5)