

Greg Hollingshead
Abbeyman
Awarded Internship

Gregory J. Hollingshead, a junior Political Science Major at Belmont Abbey College, has been selected for a legislative internship with Representative L.A. "Skip" Bafalis of his home district, the tenth congressional district of Florida. Representative Bafalis is assigned to the powerful House Ways and Means Committee.

This program is the first such internship implemented at Belmont Abbey College. It will consist of a major research project in legislative process concerning the 1975 tax reform bill. "The nature of this particular bill provides a unique opportunity to examine the progress of a bill from start to finish in the period of one five-month internship," comments Dr. Robert Jones, chairman of the Political Science Department at Belmont Abbey. Greg will be working a forty-hour week in Representative Bafalis' Washington office from January 13 to June 13, for which he will receive twelve hours of academic credit from Belmont Abbey.

Greg is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Hollingshead of 1104 Taylor Lane, Lehigh Acres, Florida, and is a native of Zanesville, Ohio. He is a 1972 graduate of Bishop Verot High School in Fort Myers, Florida, where he was senior class President and was listed in "Who's Who In American High Schools."

During his first five semesters at Belmont Abbey, Greg has been named to the dean's list four times and has maintained a quality point average of 2.39 on a 3-point scale. In 1974, Greg was appointed Belmont Abbey College's representative to the National Symposium For The Study Of The Presidency. He is a member of Pi Gamma Mu National Social Science Honor Fraternity. His future plans include law school and a career in politics.

Officials of Belmont Abbey Monastery and College recently welcomed Humberto Cardinal Medeiros, Archbishop of Boston, to Charlotte to help the Charlotte Diocese celebrate the beginning of the 1975 Holy Year. Shown at a luncheon given in his honor are Father John P. Bradley; Cardinal Medeiros; Abbot Edmund F. McCaffrey; Bishop Michael J. Begley of the Diocese of Charlotte; and Abbot Walter A. Coggin, former Abbot of Belmont Abbey.
