Fr. Bradley toasts Miss Louradour.

A Farewell Party

The library was filled with friends and well-wishes for a lovely reception honoring Miss Alexandrine Louradour, faculty secretary, and Mrs. Julia McDonnell, technical services librarian, both of whom retired August 1st. Both looking their prettiest, the two ladies greeted more than one hundred guests, and though they both insisted they were looking forward to rest and recreation, the sentiments of the crowd were aptly expressed by Father Bradley when he said, "Each of us dies just a little when we say farewell. Miss Louradour and Mrs. McDonnell have together given more than fifty years in loyal service to Belmont Abbey College in countless and important ways. We pleased that we shall not lose them entirely, for occasionally they'll be here with us to help."

We invite you to collect these HANDPAINTED WATERCOLOR PRINTS of BELMONT ABBEY COLLEGE

Each a limited edition of 750 handpainted copies

Select a campus scene you remember
... beautifully hand-rendered in vivid watercolors!

In order to offer you a gift that is personal, is of lasting value and is, of course, a bit nostalgic, we have commissioned a nationally renowned watercolorist to paint original scenes of our campus. From these originals, we have reproduced a limited edition of 750 hand-painted watercolor prints, which we now make available to you — first come, first served — at special alumni prices.

... in the quality tradition of Currier & Ives!

These reproductions are created through a process similar to that used by Currier & Ives just before the turn of the Century. From the original, a lithograph plate is made of the penline, and this is printed on fine watercolor paper. Then a team of watercolorists, working under the original artist's supervision, apply the colors by hand, so that each print you receive is a unique, vividly colored, hand-rendered work of art. No two are exactly alike — yet each matches the artist's original in quality.

Order now — order several for holiday gift-giving!

These watercolors beg favorable comment on any office or home wall — especially in the beautiful handcrafted wood framing pieces pictured on the back of this brochure. Fellow alumni in business immediately recognize the campus scenes... friends praise the handpainted quality. They make great gifts!!

Artist Allan Gray

The Hunter Gallery in San Francisco and many others.

was commissioned to do this distinctive series of our campus because of his unique talent as a watercolorist. He has exhibited and won awards at the Castano Gallery in Boston, the Ram-borger Prize at the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts,
