'08—Thanks for your nice letter, Philip Morgan. Sorry I did not get to talk with you when you were here on May 13 for your grandson's graduation. We are happy to have Joe Harold Morgan, Jr. as an alumnus of the Abbey. I quote from Mr. Morgan's letter: "It was a very impressive occasion, much larger than the ceremonies of the year 1908 in June, when we had about 45 and a student body of 310, all male. Considerable changes have occurred during these 71 years, have been a member of the alumni over 50 years and marveled at its growth." Come again soon, Mr. Morgan. We are always happy to see you, and very proud of one of our oldest living alumni.

'76 Alumnus Promoted To Director Of Admissions

Robin R. Roberts has been promoted to director of administration at Belmont Abbey College.

A native of Jacksonville, Fla., Roberts has been a part of the college community since January 1974 when he first enrolled as a student. In 1976 he received the Bachelor of Arts degree in political science, but graduation did not lead to departure in his case.

Because of his involvement in the affairs of the college and his loyalty to his new alma mater, Roberts was asked to remain as an admissions counselor for the college. Since that time he has represented the institution in the Florida, Virginia, D.C., Maryland and Tennessee areas. In 1978 he was named assistant director of admissions.

In his new position, Roberts will direct and coordinate the entire admissions program at Belmont Abbey

Robin R. Roberts

College. He will supervise the admissions office and personnel, review applications for admission, and direct the recruiting program.

Since his graduation from the Abbey, Roberts has done graduate work at the Middle Tennessee State University in Murfreesboro. He is currently enrolled in the Master of Urban Administration degree program at the University of
