

The candidates: A vital information chart

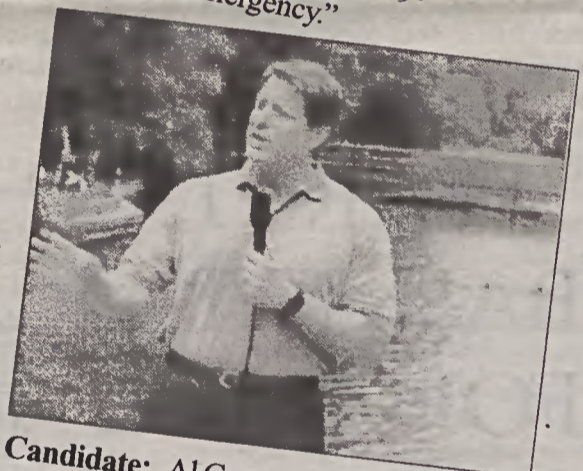

Candidate: Bill Bradley
Party Affiliation: Democrat
 Represented New Jersey for 3 terms in the U.S. Senate
Education: Princeton University Attended Oxford University as Rhodes Scholar
Military Service: None
Religious Affiliation: Presbyterian
When asked about drug use: "Several times in the early 1970's I had taken a few puffs of marijuana."
Would like kept quiet: In data taken by Center for Public Integrity 2nd worst out of 535 Congressmen for taking "fact finding trips" paid for by special interests-one to Switzerland for the low low price of $10,000 Attempted to cover-up heart condition. "I've been out here struggling as a small businessman."-same year earned $2 million

Candidate: George W. Bush
Party Affiliation: Republican
Political Experience: Two terms as governor of Texas
Education: Earned B. A. at Yale University Earned M. B. A. and Harvard Business School
Military Service: F-102 Pilot for Texas Air National Guard
Religious Affiliation: Methodist
When asked about drug use: Says he has not used illegal drugs since 1974 "I made mistakes years ago and I've learned from those mistakes."
Would like kept quiet: Hushed up arrest over cocaine possession in 1972. "I propose that every city have a telephone number 119- for dyslexics who have an emergency."

Candidate: John McCain
Party Affiliation: Republican
Political Experience: Arizona House of Representatives for 2 terms Represented Arizona in U.S. Senate for 3 terms
Education: United States Naval Academy in Annapolis U.S.
Military Service: Navy Prisoner in Hanoi, Vietnam for five and a half years-two and half were in solitary confinement
Religious Affiliation: None
When asked about drug use: "No." [He never used any illegal substances.]
Would like kept quiet: Known for crude remarks—"Do you know why Chelsea Clinton is so ugly? Because Janet Reno is her father." 1995 Sent warm birthday regards to Joseph "Joe Bananas" Bonano, the head of NY Bonano crime family."

Candidate: Al Gore
Party Affiliation: Democrat
Political Experience: U.S. House of Representatives-4 Terms for Tenn. U.S. Senate-1985-1993 for Tenn. Vice-President of U.S.
Education: Harvard University, Vanderbilt University Divinity and Law School
Military Service: Volunteered for enlistment in the U.S. Army and served in Vietnam
Religious Affiliation: Baptist
When asked about drug use: Admitted to smoking marijuana in the early 1970s
Would like kept quiet: Accused of hypocrisy concerning tobacco because he used his sister's death for political gain while still getting profit from tobacco stock.

2000

