Cross Country Spotlight

ance Harden: Lance has shown enormous leadership ability by continually supporting, encouraging and unifying the team. His passion for running is discernible by his enthusiasm to share his knowledge with others. Prior to an injury, won the Graham Invitational for the second year in a row and placed third at the Jungle run while assisting the boy's team to an impressive third place. During the first meet following his recovery, he dominated the field at the Durham County Championship, set a personal record that day and helped the boy's team earn 2nd place.

Volleyball

he Coach, Davene Mainwaring would like to commend seniors, Lindsey Aldridge, Jenna Bone, Holly Busic, Jamie Kuntz, and Ying Liu for all their hard work this month.

Leigh Ann hurt herself while running at the Jungle run invitational (the first meet of the season). However, she persevered and showed incredible athleticism and dedication by actually winning this race. This is indicative of her desire to perform at her best at all times.

eigh Ann Taylor: While she was injured she continued to be a positive contributor to the team by coming to meets to cheer on and encourage her teammates. Since she has recovered from her injury, she has placed 2nd and 4th in two meets and is once again our top female run-
