NCSSM's 1st Powder Puff

JESSICA GIBSON

The first powder-puff game, sponsored by SGA, was played on December 4. The game was seniors versus juniors, with male cheerleaders from both classes present. The spirited competitors played hard for their classmates, as the cheerleaders (some even in skirts) enthusiastically performed cheers and stunts. The junior team scored the first touch minute until half-time.

The senior coach, Tom Trocano, was seen talking to his team and the referee while whipping off his sunglasses.

Tucker acted as referee for the game. With the score still tied at the end of the second half, the game went into overtime.

The seniors won the game by gaining 1 down and 2 points. The final score was 14 to 12. Emotions and adrenaline were running high, as the two teams shook hands and left the field knowing that they had played the game well. The talent shown by both teams was amazing. Hopefully this won't be a one time thing; it has the making of an annual event or maybe even possibly an IM sport.
