

TIME TU LAF

Mother—"Willie if you put this piece of wedding cake under your pillow, what you dream will come true"
Willie—"Why can't I eat the cake and put the pillow over my stomach"

Miss Owens—"If one man can build a house in twelve days, six men can build it in two days."

Clifton—"Then if one ship crosses the ocean in six days, six ships can cross it in one day."

Fred—"I can spell bum with two letters."

Robert—"Let me hear you."
Fred—"B-m, Bum."

Robert—"That don't spell bum."
Fred—"Oh, I forgot and left you out."

Holland Webster—"What would you think of a fellow who went horse-back riding and rode all night."
Mr. Allen—"I should say he was crazy, who did such a thing?"

Holland—"Paul Revere."

Lecturer—"What have any of you done to save our timber?"

Sam Eanes—"I shot a woodpecker once."

Mr. Estes—"Glen Finch, what is a cynic?"

Glen—"A cynic is something to wash dishes in."

Nona—"Why couldn't Nat elope with Helen yesterday?"

Louise—"Her father was too sick to drive them to the station."

In some parts of Kansas fireflies are so bright that laws have been passed requiring them to have dimmers.

Wife (camping out with husband for the week-end)—George—"What does this bottle of whiskey mean?"

George—"Oh-er-er my dear, I thought it would be useful, when it was empty, to stick the candles in."

Dempsey is relieved to find that his arm was not permanently injured in his auto wreck. Now all he has to worry about is the likelihood of spraining it in some of his movie love scenes.

An ancient Greek rule of diet was this:—"Thin people should take little food and it should be fat; fat people should take much food and it should be lean."

"LEX-O-LIGHTS"

Don't step on the grass!

Gosh! Wasn't Berrier ranning?

Don't, we miss the teachers escorts this year?

"Will some one get me some frog eggs?"

The foot ball team makes many a boy who goes out to make it.

Don't jump at the chairs in the chapel; they aren't numbered.

Mount Airy came over and we climbed to the summit.

If you havn't seen Cap'n Buck perform you have missed half your life.

L. H. S. is a regular jewelry store, it has its Pearls, Jewels, Corals, Carls and Rubbies.

Gene Young has gone "nuts" again.

Most of the freshmen think LEX-HIPEP is a patient medicine.

Golly, what was that spontaneous combustion in Mr. Hunt's room?

Some of the freshmen think asperin tablets are made to write on.

Sam Miller said, "Physiology is soap making."

Eugene Young said "Success was a failure with me."

John Newsom is an artist, he draws flies.

The hat stores are doing a rushing business since the football boys got their names in the local paper.

Three cheers for Mr. Cowies; he's at every foot ball game.

Thanks for the holiday; it came in useful.

Some students sit and think, others just sit.

Kissing a tall girl standing up will cure flat feet.

To Some of the Students and a Few Of L. H. S. Teachers

The editorial staff appreciates your help on the Lexhipep immensely, but please put it in practice form; we cannot use it in oral criticism.

Yours for success, THE STAFF.

WAY BACK IN 1890.

The world's most famous automobile manufacturer was working in a bicycle shop.

A millionaire hotel owner was hopping bells.

America's steel king was stoking a blast furnace.

An international banker was firing a locomotive.

A president of the United States was running a printing press.

A great merchant was carrying a pack on his back.

A railroad president was pounding a telegraph key.

There's always room at the top—where will you be in 1956?

STUDY.

The time has come, When nothing can be done, Without study.

Even Mister Cowles, When nearing the "Polls," Has to study.

Mister Allen's creed, "Do a good deed," Takes study.

In this world of sorrow, No lessons to-morrow, Without study.

When at last, The year has past, "You ought to fail" Without study.
