

TWO KINDS OF PEOPLE.

There are two kinds of people on earth today;
 Just two kinds of people, no more,
 I say,
 Not the sinner and saint, for it's well understood,
 The good are half bad, and the bad are half good
 Not the rich and the poor, for to rate a man's wealth
 You must first know the state of his conscience and health.
 Not the humble and proud, for in life's little span,
 Who puts on vain airs, is not counted a man
 Not the happy and sad, for the swift-flying years
 Brings each man his laughter and each man his tears
 No; the two kinds of people on earth I mean,
 Are the people who lift and the people who lean,
 Wherever you go, you will find the earth's masses
 Are always divided in just these two classes
 And, oddly enough, you will find too,
 I ween
 There is only one lifter, to twenty who lean.
 In which class are you? Are you easing the load
 Of overtaxed lifters, who toil down the road?
 Or are you a leaner, who lets others bear
 Your portion of labor and worry and care?

THE CLASS OF '26.

We're the class of '26,
 We're the bunch that always sticks,
 We've got our rep,
 We've got our pep.
 If you don't believe it, just watch us step.
 If you don't believe we have school spirit,
 Just come to the games, and you will hear it
 On the side lines, on the fields,
 Ours is the team that makes them yield
 So come out Friday and hear Burlington squeal.
