

SCHOOL SPIRIT MADE GLAD

Scene I.

A girl representing school spirit is seated in the middle of the stage, her face in her hands as though moaning or crying. A school boy enters.

School Boy—"Why, who is this, that is here?"

School Spirit—"I am just School Spirit drifting around, and I happened to drop right here."

Boy—"You look as though you are sad about something."

Spirit—"Well, to tell the truth, I am sad. I should be in use right now in the primary, grammar and High Schools. But you see here I am; it's enough to dishearten anyone."

Boy—"Yes, that is so; there is a lack of school spirit in the schools. As for myself, I never believed in it."

Spirit—"You have never believed in me? Why, you are such a bright boy and still you don't believe in me!"

Boy—"No, I don't."

Spirit—"Well, you are not a good scholar, a good athletic, nor a good co-operator."

Boy—"It doesn't make any difference to you whether I am or not."

School Spirit—"Remember, some day you will believe in me and put me to use in your school work."

Boy—"Maybe I will—not unless I change my mind."

(Exit Boy)

School Spirit—(to herself) "I still have hopes for myself. I will never give up."

Scene II.—A green forest to which School Spirit has wandered. She has fallen asleep and the fairies come to wake her.

1st Fairy—"Wake up, School Spirit, cease to wander; thy dawn of hope is here; your sadness will end."

School Spirit—(Waking) "What is the meaning of all this?"

Fairies—"We wish to bestow to you gifts."

1st Fairy—"You shall be a great working power in the school."

2nd Fairy—"Thy very name will be ringing everywhere."

3rd Fairy—"Thou shalt be present at football, basketball and baseball games."

4th Fairy—"Thou shalt be present in the recitation room."

5th Fairy—"Thou, School Spirit, shall be created within the boys of Lexington High School so that they will yell on the football field."

School Spirit—"Thank you, dear Fairies, I am happy at last."

Fairies go skipping out singing: "School Spirit has ceased to be sad, The Fairies have made her glad The Fairies have made her glad."

(Exit School Spirit)

Scene III—The school boy in the meantime has become vivacious with school spirit. He knows his lessons better, goes to all the games and yells to the top of his voice. School spirit is again seated in the middle of the stage but this time she looks bright and happy. School boy enters.

School Boy—"School Spirit, your face is so bright and happy looking. What has changed you since yesterday?"

School Spirit—"I am not the same School Spirit of yesterday. I was sad but to-day I am glad. The fairies have told me good news."

Boy—"Something has changed me. I am really a different boy, and full of you, School Spirit."

School Spirit—"I had predicted that you would make use of me and you have."

Boy—"Yes, and it makes me happy."

School Spirit—"I don't think I will ever be sad again, because I believe I am going to be used in the right way and at the right time."

Boy—(Speaking to audience, which is composed mostly of school boys and girls.) Boys and girls, let us cooperate with School Spirit and all will be well in the end.

CICERO, CICERO!

Heigh Hi, Heigh Hi, Ho!

To Cicero class we must go,

And all the while our knees are shaking.

Lest we should miss, and get a raking.

And there Miss Lula sits so straight
So she can watch, and see who's late;
And we must get to work right away,
For Miss Lula does not believe in play.

And soon our Cicero lesson's begun,
And our minds unravel what they have spun

Of Cicero and his wonderful oration
About Catiline, and the Roman nation.

THANK YOU, GENTLEMEN!

Lexington High School wishes to thank the High School football team and coach Robbins for their hard work and loyal support of this high school during the football season. In a few more weeks the season will be ended and we take this time to express our appreciation. For months the football boys have worked under the lashings of coach Robbins, in rain or under a broiling sun, yet it was not for themselves that they did this. It was the love of their school, old L. H. S., that drove them on. Coach Robbins has been there every day, giving his best to make this a great team. We also wish to thank Dave Conrad, Mr. Stokes, Mr. Craven, and Mr. Welborn, without whose support the team could not have been organized as it was.

BE A BOOSTER

If you think the P. T. A. the best,
Tell 'em so!

If you'd have it lead the rest,
Help it grow.

When there's something to do,
Let them always count on you,
You'll feel good when it is through,
Don't you know?

If you're used to giving knocks,
Change your style;
Throw bouquets instead of rocks
For awhile.
Let the other fellow roast
Shun him as you would a ghost;
Meets his banter with a boast and a smile.

When a stranger from afar
Comes along,
Tell him who and what you are—
Make it strong,
Never flatter, never bluff;
Tell the truth and that's enough;
Be a booster, that's the stuff,
Don't just belong.

FAVORITE SAYINGS

Mr. Allen—"Frances, come to the front."

Frances—"What did you say?"

Mr. Allen—"Come to the front."

Frances—"I didn't understand you"

Mr. Allen—"Do you want me to write it on the blackboard so that you can hear me?"
