Greetings from Robbins School to All our Readers

Congratulations to Hallie Huffman in Grade 5II, for winning the 50c prize, in naming Robbins School Page in the Lexhipep. Eighty-three names were presented. From these names, the judges thought "Robbins Record" the best.

Hallowe'en Nickelodum

Hallowe'en Night found Robbins School all a-glow with fun and merriment. The auditorium, artistically decorated, was where over six hundred ghosts, witches, and others gathered for fishing, games, fortune telling and other Hallowe'en sports. One hundred and forty boys and girls, in costume, paraded and sang. The judges awarded Macie Watson the $2.50 prize for best costume. From the $85.00 receipts, $56.95 was cleared. This amount is going to be used for Robbins School equipment.

Organize Literary Society

The two seventh grades have recently organized a Literary Society, known as Burgmann Literary Society. The Committee for naming the Society composed of Fannie Porter Cowles, Chairman, Elizabeth Russell, Kathryn Eanes and Thompson Lowe honored the Society, by naming it for their two teachers; Miss Burg(iss) and Miss Mann. The officers elected were President, Thompson Lowe; Vice-President, Virginia McCrary; Secretary-Treasurer, Laura M a e Young.
