

THE LEXHIPEP

Published by the Students of Lexington High School

VOL. III.

LEXINGTON, N. C., NOV. 26, 1924

No. 4

THE ALPHA GAMMA LITERARY SOCIETY

The Alpha Gamma Literary Society had its first meeting the 4th of November. The purpose of this meeting was to elect officers and appoint the committees that were needed. For president, Annie Thomason was elected; vice president, Esther Hutchins; and for secretary-treasurer, Cora Mae Hege. Mr. E. C. Hunt and Miss Helen Zimmerman are to act as critics.

The second meeting of the Alpha Gamma Literary Society was held the 11th of November, in the auditorium. The business was discussed and then the members enjoyed a very humorous reading, given by Miss Leland Beck. Current events were given by Misses Grace Elizabeth Lindsay and Alice Myrtle Koons. Miss Esther Hutchins favored the society with some very good jokes. Mr. Hunt and Miss Zimmerman gave their criticism. Then a program committee was appointed, which was composed of Misses Ina Hunt, Eunice Hedrick and Mary Belle Everhart.

The third meeting of the Alpha Gamma Literary Society was held in Room No. 2, Tuesday, November 18. The business of choosing a name for the society was discussed, and the name "Alpha Gamma" was chosen. A very interesting program was given, of which one feature was a debate. Resolved, "That Seniors should have special privileges." The speakers on the affirmative were: Misses Mary Edna Miller and Jewell Maness. On the negative, Misses Ina Hunt and Theresa Hackney. The judges handed in their decisions, and the negative side won. The time being up, the rest of the program was postponed until the next meeting.

Cloyd, to (Louise)—"You said you'll learn to love me. How long do you think it will take? It's twelve-thirty now."

Zimmer Harp Trio Pleases Audience

The Zimmer Harp Trio rendered a most excellent program in the High School Auditorium Wednesday, November 19 at 8 P. M. under the auspices of the Lexington Parent-Teacher's Association. Although the audience was comparatively small, the Trio expressed after the program, that they had never played before a more appreciative audience in their entire career. Some have expressed the view that the program was a failure owing to the fact that there was not more than half the audience expected, but we are inclined to take a different view of the matter, and say that such high class art cannot be estimated in dollars and cents. We feel that the P.-T. A. has done a great sacrificial service in bringing to the Lexington people a program of such high character and unquestionable art. The Zimmer Harp Trio is worthy of the patronage of the most exclusive music lovers of any city in the state, and we are mighty glad that our P.-T. A. brought them to our school.

J. E. ALLEN.

"Well," said Russell, as he poured water in the cash register. "This is sure going to run into money."

ROTARIANS ENTERTAIN THE FOOT BALL BOYS

On Tuesday, November 18th, the Letter men of the high school football squad were entertained by the Rotary Club at the March Hotel. A very interesting program was carried out. Speeches were made by Coach Robbins, Mr. Stokes, and Mr. Wade Phillips. During the meeting Cloyd Philpott presented Coach Robbins with $10. in gold, as a gift of appreciation from the Football Boys. Mr. Phillips, on behalf of the town and Rotary Club, thanked the team and coach Robbins; not for their victories during the season, but for their clean play and fine spirit shown at all times. Everyone had a fine time and hope to be present next year at the banquet, which the club gives annually to the team. Those present other than members were: Varner Sink, Nat Hunt, Cloyd Philpott, Sam Eanes, Capt. Molly Anderson, Bob Raker, Gene Young, Beufort Miller, Wood Dorsett, Paul Hutchins, Dick Cecil, Robt. Chetty, Joe Moffitt, Odel Vestal, Dave Conrad, T. D. Stokes, "Roz" Robbins.

THE CLASS OF '26 ORGANIZES

The Junior class met in the auditorium Thursday, November 13, for the purpose of organizing and electing officers for the coming year. The following officers were elected: President, Aubun Woods; Vice-President, Glenn Finch; Treasurer, Pauline Sink; Secretary, Joe Moffitt.

With this capable set of officers, the Junior class looks forward to great achievements this year. Next year with a capable set of officers, equal to these, the members of this class hope to reach the goal that has been set for them. When this has happened, they can look back upon their years in High School as their best days. They will rejoice at the thought of graduation and at the thought that they have accomplished at last the thing that they set out to do September 4, 1922.