

THE LEXHIPEP

Published Semi-Monthly by the Lexington
High School

Subscription Rates $1.00 Per Year in Advance.
Advertising Rates Upon Request.

EDITORIAL STAFF

Clara Taylor.....	Editor-in-Chief
Joe Moffitt, Jr.....	Associate Editor
Annie Mae Lopp.....	Associate Editor
Elizabeth Hackney.....	Associate Editor
Stephanie Bragaw.....	Associate Editor
Ham Hargrave.....	Athletic Editor
Louise Thompson.....	Athletic Editor
Frances Thompson.....	Literary Editor
Grace Elizabeth Lindsay.....	Literary Editor
Dorothea Dorsett.....	Joke Editor
Dwight Johnson.....	Assignment and Ex. Editor

STAFF OF MANAGERS

Varner Sink.....	Business Manager
Dick Walsler.....	Asst. Business Manager
Archie Brannock.....	Asst. Business Manager
Cloyd Philpott.....	Circulation Manager

Mr. E. C. Hunt.....	Censor
Miss M. Zimmerman.....	Censor

LEXINGTON, N. C., FEB. 20, 1925

SOCIETY AND CLASS NOTES

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y club had its regular meeting Thursday night at seven o'clock. The club voted to have several new members initiated at the next meeting, and also made arrangements for some Bible study books. The most important thing discussed and decided on was a Hi-Y banquet on March 11, to which the local club will invite the members of the High Point, Salisbury and Thomasville Hi-Y Clubs.

I Ha Ha Campfire

One of the best attended meetings of the I Ha Ha Campfire chapter, was at the home of Florence Swaim on Wednesday evening, February 11. After the business session refreshments were served. The circle will meet on the following Wednesday, February, 18, with Miss Marguerite Ebelein.

The Alpha Zeta Meets

The Alpha Zeta had an interesting meeting on Thursday, February 12. Plans were made for the party of the next night. Afterwards, there was a debate: Resolved: "That A Billy-Goat is More Dangerous Than A Hat Pin." The Alpha Gamma had debated this before and the negative side won, but this time the affirmative composed of Herbert Waters and Foll Essick was victorious. It was very funny and was enjoyed by all. There was a report of the Bovine committee but Fred didn't have much to say. The meeting was then adjourned.

The Alpha Gamma Literary Society

The Alpha Gamma Literary Society met February 3, in Room II. The business was discussed, and the social committee gave a report. After this an interesting program was given which was enjoyed by everyone. At the conclusion of the program the president dismissed the society.

SENIOR NOTES

On Tuesday, February 10, the Senior class had a meeting. Cloyd Philpott, president of the class, presided. Orders were taken for invitations which have already been selected. Mae Vestal Leonard was selected Class Mascot. The colors are green and white; flower, white rose. The motto of the class is: "Build for character and not for fame."

The members of the Senior Class are glad to have Miss Walker back after her recent illness. They hope she will be able to continue teaching throughout the year without further interruptions.

In the last issue of the LEXHIPEP a statement was made that the senior play would be given March 3rd. The correct date is March 6th.

JUNIOR NOTES

The Juniors had a class meeting Wednesday afternoon to discuss the entertainment to be given to the Seniors. A hayride was decided on, so all you seniors be ready when the next full moon rolls round, and don't have another engagement. Get you a beau or girl if you can, (but don't expect the Juniors to provide them) and we'll have loads of fun.

Great rivalry in the Junior class as to who can draw posters more like the seniors.

The Junior president called a meeting of the class Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of distributing tickets to be sold for the play, "A Bachelor's Honeymoon," to be given at the Lexington Theatre Monday afternoon and evening.

SOPHMORE NOTES

Not much has been said about the Sophomore class this year; however, we are not mad about it, so here is a little confessing:

The first day Miss Walker was absent from Latin Class, we taught and were praised, but that went to our heads and the next day we received a very much enjoyed lecture on the subject of "When you can work and when you can't." The next day or so we cooled down.

When Miss Walker was absent the second time we obtained quite a reputation for singing, especially "Somebody Stole My Gal." The singing was fine while it lasted, but the after effect wasn't so pleasant, as we had to stay in one hour for our lovely solos!

We have had quite a bit of fun reading "As You Like It;" that is, it was fun to read, but we can't say that we loved the memory work.

What makes Alice Myrtle such a brilliant History Student?

Needed: a detective in Room 4 for spying.

The Latin 2 A girls are making a success of their cafeteria and we are hoping they will stay successful.

THOSE FRESHMEN

SARAH FRANCES VESTAL

A proud little beauty is Sarah Vestal, She placed herself upon a pedestal; From all the boys she held aloft, Till 'long came Kenneth and knocked her off.

DOROTHY MYERS

A dear little girl is our darling Dot, She always laughs and talks a lot; But on the days that we have test, She's always solemn with the rest.

JENNIE LEE PICKETT

A curly-headed beauty is Jennie Lee As all the hounds in "Hi" can see; She laughs and she flirts with all the boys, And her Latin teacher she surely annoys.

EDNA CHANEY

A dear little girl is Edna Chaney, Of all things she hates is a day that