MOTHER'S DAY

Mother's day always comes on the second Sunday in May, so in school we celebrate it on Monday. Those, whose mothers are not living wear a white flower and those whose mothers are living wear a red flower. The carnation is very appropriate for this and also a rose. We do this to show how thankful we are for our mothers.

SEVENTH GRADE PRELIMINARY CONTEST

The Seventh Grades had their preliminary contest on Friday, April 24th. There were twenty-three boys and girls in the contest and out of the number six boys and six girls were chosen to enter the finals. The judges spoke very highly of the contest and said that they doubted if any other seventh grade pupils could do as well. The judges were Mrs. Holmes, Mr. McGregor and Mr. Shelton. The following are the names of contestants chosen for the finals: Ruth Bean, Louise Mock, Lila Aaron, Elizabeth Leonard, Willie Veigh Leonard, Sara March Walser, Irving Leonard, Loyce Wagoner, Thompson Lowe, Elmo Tysinger, Charles Snyder, Charlie Waitman.

SARA MARCH WALSER.

SCOUTING

Last Friday the Girl Scouts had a meeting. The main object of the meeting was to pass the Tenderfoot Test. The following passed: Faye Earnhart, Laura Mae Young, Grace Walser, Helen Pickard, Sara March Walser, Nellie Miller, Doris Weaver, Mary Elizabeth Maley, Mary Louise Moffitt, Dorothy Smith, Geneva Farahee, Lorine Miller, Louise Kirkman, Loraine Anderson and Virginia McCrary. To pass the test the girls had to know a few things about the flag, the Scout Laws, Promise Slogan, Motto, Salute and many other useful as well as helpful things. We have meeting every Friday night, the first part is devoted to business and the latter part to amusement.

NOTES

The sixth grades have elected their ushers for Commencement. They are Mary Louise Moffitt, Kathleen Johnson, Joe Roberts, and Gray Davis.

Picnics are all the go at Robbins. Mrs. Conrad's Grade 2-A had a good time at the Park last Friday. Miss Duke's Grade I is going to the Park on May the first and the two seventh grades are going to Willmoore Springs.

Grade 7-I and 7-II got the dollar prizes for having 100% attendance at the play, that the Teachers gave at the Lexington Theatre, last Wednesday.

All fifteen grades made the Music Honor Roll last month.

Grades on Grand Honor Roll, with no tardies: Mrs. Radcliffe, Miss Simpson, Miss Reid, Mrs. Koontz, Miss Ledbetter, Miss Gilder, Miss Owen, Miss Criddlebaugh, Miss Weaver, Miss Mann.

Grades with Best Attendance are Primary, Miss Reid's Grade 3-A with 98.3%, and Grammar, Miss Burgiss' Grade 7-I with 98.9%.

"LIGHTHOUSE NAN"

On the night of April 22nd the teachers of Robbins School, assisted by a few of the town men, under the skillful direction of Miss Ledbetter, gave a three act play, at the Lexington Theatre, entitled "Lighthouse Nan".

Miss Ellen Owen as Nan, the leading character easily captivated the audience. Ichabod or Pa Buzzer was splendidly represented by Mr. Kenneth Spicer, who never lost an opportunity to imbibe "wet goods". Miss Anne Duke, the "gentle antelope" of Ichabod's "bosom" acted like a "veteran of the footlights". The character of Ned Blake as Nan's city lover was very ably taken by Mr. Blake Thompson. Mr. Van Farrell, as a British nobleman and his sister, Miss Josephine, a bad man was well taken by Mr. Bonna Black. Hon. John Enlow and daughter, Miss Hortense were very cleverly impersonated by Mr. Edro Wheeler and Miss Nellie Fleming.

The Kiwanis Quartette rendered some very entertaining numbers.

Miss Anne Greenfield had charge of a very novel program between acts, consisting of a toy orchestra by Primary Pupils of Robbins School a group of songs by Miss Audrey Myers and an aesthetic dance by Miss Laura Mae Young.

Our sale of tickets amounted to $315.55, out of which we had to pay $83.65 for expenses, making a clear profit of $231.90. The profit is to go to our Library, which we are trying to standardize. We now have 354 books, but need 346 more to make it a standard. By the first of next term, we are expecting it to be a standard Library.
