PERSONALITIES OF SUPERLATIVES

(READING FROM LEFT TO RIGHT IN THE CHARMING PHOTO ABOVE)

- SARAH GAMBRELL—Best Disposition Girl
With her sunny smile and cheery word for everyone, Sarah justly received the title of the best disposition girl. One would seldom find a gal with more friends than "Sadie".
- BOB ARNOLD—Most dependable boy, best all-round boy, most versatile boy, best disposition boy, best personality boy.
As these titles indicate, "Boney" is "tops" in everything he undertakes. His winning ways, dependability and casual manners makes him a friend of all and to all. With his brilliant career to boost him, "Boney" seem certain to succeed in his chosen occupation and with his associates.
- MARIE BULLOCK—Most dependable girl.
She does it, she does it well, and she does it willingly. Yes, that's Marie. Marie has been the "person behind the scenes" many times throughout her four years in high school, and thus should be recognized by all.
- WALTER FOIL BRINKLEY—Most Outstanding boy, most likely to succeed boy, most brilliant boy.
"Senator" Brinkley, who hails from North Carolina, has graced the class of '43 all four years in high school with the exception of the time when he was giving legal advice to the President in Washington. With his intellectual ability, "Walt" is bound to succeed in everything he attempts to do.
- JEAN GRIFFITH—Most likely to succeed girl, most versatile girl.
As the title, most versatile, suggests, Jean is outstanding in everything she undertakes. Her blonde attractiveness and charming ways make her a joy in every crowd.
- AUSTIN FRYE—Best looking boy.
See that group of girls? Look in the center and without a doubt there will be "Ort"! His sweet sarcasm, charming personality, and good looks make him the object of female affections. Other than this, "Ort" is also liked by the manly side of the world, and we know he's sure to kick the ball over the goal post as well as he did when he was one of the great football stars of L. H. S.
- FRANCES MILLER—Best looking girl.
With her tender smile and flashing eyes, Frances would break anyone's heart. Besides being beautiful, she has loads of personality and a sweet disposition. Hats off to you, Beautiful!
- GRADY MCCOY—Wittiest boy
Grady "life of the party" McCoy keeps his public in hilarious uproars. There's never a dull moment where Grady's concerned, for his wit is bound to bring constant enjoyment.
- "GOONEY" WALL—Best-dressed boy.
That well-groomed boy with a click in his walk can be none other than Calvin Wall, Jr., better known as "Gooney". His well-dressed appearance can always be detected wherever he goes.
- JEANNE WILLIAMSON—Most personality girl, most outstanding girl.
A charming girl with a gay manner, a soft smile, and a twinkle in those large blue eyes have established Jeanne as number one in our hearts. Surely she will go far in life, always standing out above everyone else, and we're proud to claim that she is of Lexington High School.
- DERMONT EVERHART—Cutest Boy, most popular.
That small person with the dynamic personality, falsetto voice, and usually surrounded by girls could be none other than L. H. S.'s cutest and most popular boy, "Dirty". His winning ways and twinkling smile make everyone like him.
- MELVIN EVERHART—Best Athlete boy, best sport boy.
Although his dreams of his football career were shattered by a broken leg, Melvin fought his way to the top. He proved he could "take it", and still be cheerful and happy.
- ANN WHITE—Most popular girl, best all-round girl, best sport girl.
Participation and a wholehearted interest in everything she does, Ann has rightly deserved to lead the junior and senior years of the class of '43. Ann has a knack of getting along with people that will assure her success in any phase of life.
- BETTY SUE HEDRICK—Cutest girl, most brilliant girl.
Aren't they a queer pair of superlatives for one girl to be voted, but without a doubt they suit her as if they were created exactly for her. "Sudie", with her crown of flaming red hair and her ceaseless chatter, is a perfect combination of the sensible and insensible in this world. There's never a dull moment when "Sudie's" in the crowd and yet when a quadratic equation can't be worked, her hand is first to fly up in response to "Who has worked it." Anything but a bookworm, "Sudie" has disproved the belief that you can't retain a 98 average and still be the cutest little trick in the school at the same time.
- BETTY MCCRARY—Best-dressed girl, wittiest girl.
With a jump and a flutter and a witty word, Betty, that blonde-bombshell, rightly received the title of the wittiest girl. Her unique grooming makes wondering eyes often linger and admire a well-rounded girl.
- DICK PEELER—Most studious boy.
Through striving to become a surgeon, Dick has studied hard his four years in high school. Still he has his fun, which makes him more than a bookworm—a regular guy.
- MILDRED BAILEY—Most studious girl.
Besides having brains and book-sense, Mildred has a sweet disposition and a quaint personality. Her remarkable qualities will keep her on top always, as one would expect of the salutatorian.
