

Come Home For Homecoming!

Tonight
We'll
Beat
Children's Home

THE LEXHIPEP

Then After
Homecoming
They Won't
Be Alone

Vol. XXIV

LEXINGTON, N. C., OCTOBER 4, 1946

No. 1

Members of the cast, reading from left to right: Betty Jo Everhart, Jack Swaim, Adele Tuttle, Enid Ayers, Becky Smith, Mary Sue Thomason, Tenny Redwine, Joe Ayers, Dot Spruill, E. H. Easter, Sue Hooper, Mrs. L. E. Andrews, Mrs. Paul Miller, Tommy Young, Stanford Tate, Woody McKay, and Jack Alber.

"Ye Olde Song Shoppe," Written And Produced By Ed Easter, Ushers In Lexhipep Subscription Drive

Featuring the music of Jerome Kern, Cole Porter and George Gershwin, Ed Easter, Jr., reproduced for his alma mater, "Ye Olde Song Shoppe." This musical comedy was written by the producer, now a senior at the University of North Carolina.

Starring in the title role was Ed Easter, tenor. He was ably assisted by Miss Dot Spruill, contralto; Sue Hooper, soprano; Joe Ayers, baritone, and Mrs. L. E. Andrews, accompanist on the piano. Mrs. Paul Miller was guest star, playing her original compositions on the piano. Other characters were Betty Jo Everhart and Woody McKay, comedians; Jack Alber and Jack Swaim, the Sani-Flush twins; and numerous customers.

The music ranged from semi-classic to the most popular novelties, with the climax coming near the end as Ed, Dot, Sue, and Joe gave their arrangement of "Doin' What Comes Naturally."

This performance started the Lexhipep subscription drive for 1946-47.

New Veterans Club Organized

Hayes Robbins, President

The newest club in school is the Veterans Club which is composed of boys that have been in service and have returned to Lexington High School.

A meeting was called September 10 in the auditorium to elect officers of the club and to decide on a project. Hayes Robbins, who served in the Navy for three years, was elected president of the club. "Chub" Wilson, secretary of the club, served six weeks in the Navy before he was medically discharged.

Other members of the club are: Ralph Lanning, who served three years with the Army in the European theater; Ira W. Church, who served three years in the Atlantic and South Pacific with the Navy; Paul R. Shoe-

(Continued on Page Seven)

Yellow Jackets Meet Children's Home Tonight; Old Rivals Clash at Eight

A game that will mean a great deal to the Yellow Jackets this year will be played tonight at Holt-Moffitt field when Children's Home's hard-hitting eleven meets the Yellow Jackets. Starting time has been set at eight o'clock.

Children's Home had one of the best teams in the state last year, and has been the class B champions for the past two years. Lexington has been beaten by the Home for the last two years by large scores but Coach Jimmy Maus believes he has a surprise in store for them tonight. Both teams have a good chance at winning the class championship and the winner may well come from the game tonight.

Coach Maus has already determined tonight's mixup as one of the toughest of the season. Children's Home has a big, rough team and they will be hard to beat.

Lexington's lineup will be:
LE—Pete Clark.
LT—Bill Blaylock.
LG—Benny Walser.

(Continued on Page Four)

L.H.S. Opens With Many New Members On Faculty

There are fourteen new teachers in Lexington High School this year, and the school is indeed fortunate in having these new teachers by the opening of school. A list of them including the subjects taught and other information follows:

Subject: Freshmen Teachers

Miss Lillian Raper, a former student of L.H.S., graduated from W.C.U.N.C. in the class of '46. She resides at the Parkview Apartments.

Miss Virginia Gibson is a graduate of the University of Michigan, and her home is in Cleveland, Ohio.

Business Department

Miss Carolyn Hollingsworth resides at Hege Inn. She is a graduate of W.C.U.N.C. and her home is in Goldsboro.

Assistant Coach

Mr. Clayton C. Gaddy from Wadesboro, is a graduate of Catawba College, where he participated in athletics. He is the new assistant coach at L.H.S. and teaches boys' physical ed. He married a Lexington girl, the former Anna Green, and lives at the Ben Green home on West Center Street.

English

Mrs. Fred B. Lewis is a graduate of G.C. She is the eleventh grade English teacher and the dramatics teacher. She lives on Route No. 6, Lexington and comes to us from Tyro.

Miss Lillian Jones, who taught at Davis-Townsend last year, teaches ninth grade English and first and second year Latin. She has an A.B. degree from the University of Louisville and her Master's from the University of Kentucky.

Mrs. William Wright, who is a graduate of Duke University and a former student of L.H.S., teaches ninth grade Civics. She resides at West Second Avenue and is the former Bill Gordon.

Miss Jeanette Wade lives at Century Oaks. She is a teacher of tenth grade history, is from Charlotte, and

(Continued on page 3, column 4)

New Senior Class Officers

The new senior class officers: Top row, Bob Peeler, president; left to right, below: Stanford Tate, treasurer; Paul Williams, vice-president; and Peggy Pean Thomason, secretary.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

October 4—Football: Children's Home, here.

October 4—Assembly.

October 11—Football: High Point there.

October 11—Assembly.

October 14—Southeast Assembly: The Lewis Players.

October 18 — Football: Barium Springs—Homecoming Game.

October 18—Assembly.

October 25—Football: Monroe there.

October 25—Assembly.

November 1—Football: Reidsville here.

November 1—Assembly.

November 8—Football: Thomasville, there.

November 15—Football: Concord here.

November 22—Football: Albemarle, here.