

A. Sapp's Fibles

BY A. SAPP

Bill Cook: I never saw you smoke a cigar before.
Henry Wall: I just picked it up.

Sue H.: What makes trees petrify?
Bill E.: Oh, the wind makes them rock.

Woody Mc.: Are you her second boyfriend?
Hubert O.: No, I'm her fifth.
Woody: Good land, boy, you're not a boy friend. You're a habit!

Zacky T.: I'm groping for words.
Jane S.: Well, you don't expect to find them around my neck, do you?

Miss Walser: Define bibliography.
Hardrock: The books of the Bible.

Mrs. Hedrick: (on English test) Define resonance.
Jackie Lancaster: A place where someone lives!

Tubba C.: Let's go to a movie.
Joanne K.: Which one?
Tubba: It doesn't matter; one is just as dark as the other.

Mr. Leonard: For what were the Phoenecians famous?
Charlie Price: Blinds!

Miss Pugh: (surprised at good grades on French test) I can't stand it!
Jim Dillon: Sit down.

Johnnie R.: If Mr. Payne doesn't take back what he said this morning,
I am going to leave school.
M.A.H. What did me say?
Johnnie: He told me to leave school.

What ever trouble Adam had
With men in days of yore
They couldn't say, when he told a joke,
"I've heard that before!"
