

LEXHIPEPERS

—by We I. U.

Boy, it sho' is wonderful to be back in school again, and we're really gonna have a successful school year. What ya' say???

First we'd like to introduce some of our "little green" freshmen. Amelia Brown was started high school with a "bang" by dating Buddy Beck. On the same night we caught a glance of Mary Jane Shirley and Bobby Leonard.

This summer quite a few love affairs accumulated, such as: Jimmy Dan and Peggy Costner, and J. L. and Carolyn. Oh! and Martha Hooper and Bobby Culberson, from Washington.

Finally Jo Anne hooked her man, Carroll Leonard. Nice going, Jo Anne. There aren't many people that can do that well. Luck to both of you.

Welcome to L.H.S., Jack Musten. We're glad to have you, and we're not only speaking for the staff, but for Mary Nell and Mike, and Martha Hooper.

Speaking of old love affairs, we'd like to congratulate "Pockets" and Jen and "Stinky" and Betty Joe. We're glad to have "Stinky" and "Pockets" back in our squad this year. You both played a swell game Wednesday.

Have you heard "Hardrock" tell about that good looking cheerleader from Spencer? And Charlie, Hugh and Paul Shoemaker talk about their women in Salisbury???

Another unexpected member of the football squad is "Chub" and he's also playing on Frankie Thompson's team, too. (You know, Verona Thompson's sister!!!)

"Teeny", there sho' are a lot of upper classmen that envy you in your choice of a "feller", none other than Jack Kivett!! But what about Billy Payne (or little Choo Choo???)

Old flames never die (or do they?). At least, one doesn't, and that's Rodney Clark and Betty Rose Conrad.

Johnnie McCrary (our new cheerleader) and Mike Siceloff sho' let us down. I just guess it wasn't one of those things.

Mary Sue's dream has finally come true. Reid is out and will soon be home!!!

Eternal Triangles don't seem to fail us from year to year. This year it's Enid Ayers, "Woody" and Bill Johnson. They're all in dramatics together and, boy, what a class!!!!

There aren't many people that get to celebrate three years of going steady, and right about here I would like to say that Johnnie and Mary Anne are going to celebrate the 28th of September. Hats off to you!

Pegge and Mouse run a pretty good race with "Goot" and "Sug". They're still sticking in there!!!

We can't be certain about this bit of gossip. If we are wrong, correct us, but Leon Hedrick and Ruth Jenkins are dating now. We hope we are right. Are we???

Have you seen that starry-eyed, evil-eyed, good-looking hunk of Jimmy Siceloff? Well, so has A. J., so, Jimmy, open those eyes!!!

The upperclassmen seem to head out of town, the boys to Burlington and the girls to T'ville, with the exception fo the few who sit at home and twiddle their thumbs or the lucky ones who manage to get dates.

Sit down immediately, 'cause no one could possibly take this standing up. Johnnie Raker got a haircut. Believe it or not!!!

Ern took Jerry out in his T model the other night. I bet both of them got the cold shoulder!!!

Well, same old couples, same old faces, same old namse: Zacky and Jane, and Joanne and "Tubba" and Bill and Sue.

Don't you think for a minute that Margaret O. and W. Stanford have broken up, 'cause they ain't—you couldn't make a better match.

Cook has even started taking meals with Pat. At least he took one, and that was lunch. Afterwards they enjoyed a nice duet—on the piano!!!!

So sad, too bad, that Annette had to go leave Charlie, but correspondence is the next best thing.

No wedding bells for Elsie yet—she just couldn't leave L.H.S., so she's put off the ceremony until graduation, just to come back with us!!!

Carolina and Myrtle Beach were better known as little Lexington this summer. There were sure some good times spent there. Just ask Jane Gordon and Bill, and numbers of others, including our new eighth grade teacher, Miss Lillian Raper!!!!

Four more old-timers are Jack Swaim and Betty Wilson and Jack Alber and Betsy Swicegood.

We want to congratulate all the new HI-Y and Tri-Hi-Y members. We think you're swell!!!

Just one more thing before we close; don't all you people let us down. Get in there and pitch! There are all types of prospects; I'm sure there's one for you.

THE EYES AND EARS OF LEXINGTON HIGH

—Jack Swaim

Here is a letter from Caledonia to one of her friends(Ba-ba-re-bop. 11:60 P.M. one of her friends, Ba-ba-re-bop.

"Gonna Take a Sentimental Journey" on "The Atchison, Topeka, and the Santa Fe." I plan to eat "One Meat Ball" and some "Shoo Fly Pie Apple Pandouty" in "Salt Pork, West Virginia". You know I never get enough of that wonderful stuff.

"I'm a Big Girl Now" with a wonderful "Personality". I know you're just "Sittin' and a Rockin'" so just "Dream" if you're feeling blue, and stick your head out the window and you'll see me "Coming Through the Rye."

"Always" "Caledonia"

—The Bugler, Beta Club.

See if you can figure out this perfectly good English poem:

Ohc ometo thete asho pivit hme, Andb uya po undo f thebe st, Twillpr oveam ostex cellent ea, Itsq alit yal levi lla tte st. Tiso nlyf oursh illi ngs apo und, Soc omet o that eama rtan dtry Nob etterc anel sewh erebefore nd, Ort hata nyoth er needb uy. —High Life, Greensboro Senior High.

"Gimme a kiss, like a good girl." "All right, but if I give you one like a naughty girl, you'll like it better."

The assesor must have been astonished when the report came in from the new appraiser, who had been sent to a home to appraise the contents.

The first item was: "One bottle of Scotch, partly full."

The Second item was: "One revolving Turkish rug."—Skywriter, Miami, Florida.

Overheard in Dramatics Class

"What is a thistle?" Johnny Raker: "A thistle is something that you blow."

—Overheard by Swaim

Boy: "May I have this dance?" Girl: "Sure if you can get a partner."

A very young girl, walking down the street with her grandmother chanced to see two cowboys standing on the street corner, talking. Turning to her grandmother she said loudly, "Golly, grandmother, look at those bow-legged men!" The horrified woman scolded the child, saying, "If you talk like that, I'll have to punish you. You must read twenty lines of Shakespeare every night for a week!" (So fell the judgment.)

Now, about two weeks later, the same situation arose, but the child thought before speaking, then said, "Hark! What manner of men are these, that wear their legs in parentheses!"

A jerk was sitting in his living room one evening, when suddenly he heard a voice in the attic, "Thump! Thump! Thump!" And that is how he knew "thumpin' was up!"

—High Life, Greensboro Senior High.

Remember When?

—Tommy Young

1 Year Ago

I wonder why Peggy Wood seems lost. Could it be because Jimmy has gone to the Navy??

Johnny McCrary sho' stays out at Jane Shoaf's a lot. Wonder what is attracting him??

Gosh! Bill Eanes, who's it gonna be next?? We just can't keep up with you. Why don't you settle down? Or have you? Could it be Sue?

Come on, Woody; why don't you and Enid get together? We know you like each other.

Goodness me, these ninth grade girls seem to be attracted to the same boys. Let's see, Mary Nell and Agnes are running a pretty good race over Hugh, and I hear Joanne and "Mike" are in the running for "Tubba". Where's Dillon?

Price and Wilson Elected Co-Captains (9/27/45).

Yellow Jackets Defeat Boyden in Opener (9/20/45).

Lexington Licks Asheboro Comets 14-6 (9/28/45).

Memorial Plaque is Formally Presented to School (9/26/45).

2 Years Ago

If you ask me, Johnny Raker and Carol Shockey make a darn cute couple.

Yes, sir, Jim. Peggy sho' is cute. Ruth Jones lost no time in making headway into that new boy's heart! Inky's his name, and he's shore good looking.

Have you all heard? Sue L. thinks Jimmy Poston, one of our new cheerleaders, is something super. More power to you, Susie.

Rev. Peeler First Assembly Speaker (9/18/44).

Salisbury Defeats Valiant Lexington Squad in First Game of Season (9/44).

Varsity Football Team goes to High Point Tonight (10/13/44).

Hi-Y Initiates 14 Into Club (9/29/44).

Rabinah, Noted Violinist, to Give Performance (10/26/44).

Taylor, Impersonator, to Appear October 31 (10/31/44).

3 Years Ago

Billie Sue McClean likes Hugh Mathis, my, my, ain't love wonderful?? Bobby Robbins and Nancy Rose Helmstetler kinda like each other's company. Could be love!

Jesse Gordon sure does get around. I hear that she and Bill Myers have it bad. But Jesse!! What does the boy from Pilot Mountain come in??

Another flashing set of daters are Maurice and Mary York. They seem inseparable.

Lexington Downs Strong Albemarle Eleven in Season's Opener.

Ted Tysinger Heads Class of '43 (9/19/43).

Tau Kappa Phi Initiates Sixteen (9/23/43).

Lexington Submerges Mills Home 37-0.

Large Enough For Values

MACKS'

5c, 10c & 25c Store

Small Enough To Feel An Interest
In Every Customer

South Main Street

CITY DRUG CO.

THE SERVICE STORE

PHONE 2233

WE DELIVER