

LETTERS to SANTA CLAUS

Dear Santa (Claus, that is),

I done beena mighty good big boy since last Christmas, so I feel that it won't be too much to ask for a few little things for Christmas.

Perhaps if you get here a while before Christmas, you can see that 1946 Buick convertible being driven around town by J. O. Burke. It does look mighty nice and I'm not saying for you to get me one, but wouldn't someone like Rita Hayworth, for instance, look good sitting beside me on the front seat?

Here's hoping!

Jake

Dear Jake,

You are right; that convertible is mighty nice. But I haven't any in stock right now; and as for Rita, I'm going to phone her just as soon as I finish answering these letters. Merry Hayworth!

Santa

Dear ole Santa,

We've been good this year and aren't asking for very much, only two things, the Leonard twins from S. C. Drop them in the toe of our stockings. Please don't disappoint us.

Kakie and Dot

Dear ole K. and D.,

Why, I couldn't bear to disappoint two good little ole girls like you two, so look in those stockings December 25th.

Santa

Dear Santa,

Please send us a "choo choo" train so we can run more missions to W. C. Hubba! Hubba! Hubba! Bonnnnggggg!!! "Tanks and Snips" a million.

Skip, Poston, Shoemaker, Watson, Raymond Wilson

Dear "Wandering Romeos",

My latest pursuit ship would get you there much faster. Honest it would! (And from the way you ended, you need it.)

Santa

Dear Santa,

Will you please stop by the University of N. C. and pick up Donald Hames, bring him to Lexington, and put him in Dorothy Bumgarner's stocking? (I know she will be very happy if you will.)

Breathless

Dear Breathless,

What have these colleges got that Lexington hasn't? Hum?

Santa

Dear Santa,

Please make a certain little brunette "Surrender."

Victor Kirkman, Jr.

Dear "Prisoner of Love",

"One More Dream" and she will be your "Pretty Baby".

Santa

Dear Santa,

Please send me a good looking woman that likes a lot of loving and smooching, and one that will be true.

Speedy

P. S. Please send one that will not be silly and will not like a tall, blond-headed boy.

S. (again)

Dear Speedy,

Kind of particular, aren't you? Don't be surprised when you see me, 'cause it will take me a couple of years to find such a gal.

Santa

Dear Santa,

Please bring me a turn-table and some records—and somebody for me to play things to. I can furnish a big open fireplace, plenty of popcorn, a nice comfortable couch, some chairs, and a big floor. Also my little nephew, "Rante" ot play with. Our chimney is plenty big enough for you to come down, so come on and join the party!! Love and stuff.

Sally (BB)

Dear "Sally",

Since you are one of the sweetest and nicest girls I know, you can have one of my Super De Luxe phonographs. That okay? What time is the party????

Santa

Dear Sandy Claws,

Please send us one big fat woman, enough for both of us.

Jack and Jim

Dear J. and J.,

You've got what it takes; go find your own fat woman. I had too hard a time finding my own. Get to work.

Santa

Dear Santa,

For my Xmas present, and for some others, drop J. T. McBride down Dora Hartley's chimney; Buddy Morgan down Frankie Lanning's; Tommy Reid down "Pete" Nance's, and Fred Leonard down Robena Everhart's. If you will do this, I will have a very nice Xmas.

Blues

Dear Blues,

I shall have to talk this over with those boys.

Santa

Dear Santa,

You know where High Point College is, so does Evelyn McDade. She would like to have Don Kepley for keeps, so please see the faculty and have him dismissed. If she doesn't get him, it's going to be S. O. L. for you.

One of Evelyn's Admirers

Dear E.'s Admirer,

I answer my own mail!! And I think Evelyn has the High Point situation well in hand.

Santa

Dear (Daddy) Santa,

I ain't proud; send me Lena.

Rock

Dear (Son) Rock,

You ain't, at that.

Santa

Dear Santa,

We think that we have been right good little girls this year and would feel greatly rewarded if you'd leave Gilbert and Steve in our stockings.

Two Lonesome Girls

Dear Girls,

You won't be lonesome after Christmas, I hope. I'll see Gil and Steve right away.

Santa

Hi Santa,

For my Xmas present, stick a black or brown-haired boy, with brown or blue eyes, about 5 ft. tall down the toe of my stocking; one about like Lloyd Russll, J. W. Jones, or Carlton Everhart. If you do, I will have an out-of-this-world Christmas.

M. F. G.

Dear M. F. G.,

Another order for boys! But I'll be doing my dogonest to get one for you.

Santa

Dear Santa,

I don't want nothing this year for meself, but please bring me grandma a gold mine, so that she will give me a nickle to have a good time on. I loves my grandmudder, and what she tells me is always the truth (isn't it, Mrs. Hedrick?). I remains conceited always.

Jack Swalm

P. S. Santa Claus, how would you like to be my grandfadder if I could arrange things?

Dear Jackie Boy,

Your grandmother, I like. But being your grandfather, it shouldn't happen to a Democrat! Look for a penny in your Xmas stocking, cutie.

Santa

Dear Santa,

Christmas this year is going to be very nice for me because I have my parents at home and I've many things to be thankful for. All I want this year is some good looking man to fall in my stocking. It really doesn't matter who it is, so long as it is a BOY. Can you bring me just that?

"A Little Girl That's Very Happy This Year"

Dear "A.L.G.T.V.H.T.Y."

You really deserve to have a boy in your Xmas stocking. I'll see if I can't get you one. Here's hoping!

Santa

Dear Santa,

I'm not too old or too young, so how about a date Christmas Eve?

Evelyn Swicegood

Dear Evelyn,

See you on the above mentioned date.

Santa

Dearest Santa,

New Year's comes but once a year;

As you can see, it's very near.

A holiday's our dearest wish;

For it, you'll be the sweetest dish.

Lots and lots of love,

Margaret O.

Dear Margaret O.,

Thanks a lot. You've made my morale zoom up.

Santa

Dear Santa,

Please send me a cute little brunette with big blue eyes (senior).

M. L. B., Jr.

Dear Jr.,

What's wrong with the blondes this season?????

Santa

Dear Swanky Clause,

You've granted my wish for the last 2 years. Can you do it this year?

He's a little blonde-headed feller by the name of "Grampy." Please, dear Santa, leave him in my stocking, just for little ole me.

"Red"

Dear "Red",

If I bring you "Grampy" what will "Mustard" do?

Santa

Dear Red Hatter,

I've been a very good little girl this year, and if you'll please put "Ern" on my doorstep on Xmas day, I'll be satisfied.

Luff, Gerry

P. S. I'll be in Baltimore.

Dear Gerry,

It seems that "Ern" is already on your doorstep!

Jours, S. C.

Dear Nick,

I am hoping that you will send a certain 6 foot 4 inch boy with peroxide hair a haircut.

Respectfully yours,

The Entire Population of N. C.

Dear Population,

I agree, period! I will put a pair of clippers in his stockings by all means!

Clipper Santa

Dearest Mr. Santa Claus,

There's a certain couple in L.H.S. who want each other for Xmas. One lives on W. Center St. and the other lives on N. Salisbury St., so please make them happy on Xmas.

A Sturdy Onlooker

P. S. Not mentioning any initials, but the names are Betsy and Jack.

Dear Onlooker,

I am quite sure that they will be happy on Xmas without my help.

Very truly yours,

Santa

Hello, you ole Bugger,

Please keep me as happy as I am now. Bring me E. R. and I'll be okay.

Luff,

Myrtle

Dear Myrtle,

Since E. R. has a car, I'll put some gas in his car and let him come—alone!

Luff,

Santa

Dear S. C.,

Please leave a certain boy in my Xmas stocking by the name of Roger Coleman.

Thanks,

Sara H.

Dear Sara,

Do you think he would fit the stocking?!

S. C.

Deah Meester Santa!

I would like for you to tell me one thing: how June Williamson and Louis Hedrick are getting along with each other.

Ansker soon,

"Thank You"

Dear "Thank You",

Are you jealous?!? I am.

Meester Santa

Dear Sandy Cause,

Please send one certain boy to Johnnie M. Wallace for Xmas. In case you don't know who I'm talking about, he happens to be Don Yates.

An Admiring Friend

Dear Admirer,

Let's hope Don reads this letter AND takes the hint!

S. C.

Dear Santa,

The one serious, fervent wish of L. H. S. is that you will instill into the students' hearts the true meanings of this blessed season.

Lexington High School

Dear L. H. S.,

Thanks for the best letter of all. I shall endeavor to fulfill your request. A blessed Christmas to all.

Santa
