"Chub" and Sue

Sue Hooper—Most Attractive
Richard Wilson—Best Looking

Woody and Mary

Woody McKay—Wittiest, Most Popular; Mary McLendon—Wittiest

Eyes upward! "A thing of beauty is a joy forever." It is a joy to look at "Chub" Wilson and Sue Hooper, who were elected the best-looking boy and prettiest girl in the senior class. Don't you agree with the seniors' choice?

Evelyn, Jake, Adele, and Margaret

Evelyn McDade, Cutest—Jake Cross, Most Dependable, Most Studious—Adele Tuttle, Most Versatile—Margaret Finch, Most Intellectual, Most Studious.

The car above may look ancient, but Jake Cross, Evelyn McDade, Adele Tuttle, and Margaret Finch certainly aren't. Neither did the senior class think these four were of ancient material, because they elected Jake the most dependable and most studious boy, Margaret the most studious girl, Evelyn the cutest girl, and Adele shared the honor of most versatile.

The two smiling people you see above are none other than Mary McLendon and Woody McKay, who were voted as the two wittiest students in the senior class. Anyone can guess that they are memorizing the jokes in the funny book so that they can live up to their names. Woody also is the most popular boy by the seniors' votes.

Below are Paul Williams and Mary Anne Hunt. Both were chosen as the most outstanding students in the senior class and each one really deserves it. Yet their honors don't stop there, because Mary Anne proved to be the most popular senior girl, and Paul is the most versatile boy.

Seated in the hammock below you'll see four more senior superlatives. They are Bill Hedrick and Paul Shoemaker, who share the honors of having the best personality along with Becky Smith. Bill is also the cutest boy in the senior class. Most dependable was the honor given to Peggy Jean Thomason.
